EDITORIAL

With a choice to be better in this Pandemic, we are happy to release yet another issue of Prasadi Academy souvenir 2077. Thanks to the team and their unbreakable spirit for producing this souvenir. The magazine replicates, not only the prasadians' outstanding artifacts and the regular stuff of the certain point of time, but also renders the glorious existence till the date of the institution in total. Unlike the past, we are unable to cover up various works of art due to COVID 19, in this issue. Sadly, we have also missed the most inspiring and interesting segment "The Interview" from the most aspiring personalities of our time. At the same time, we ask our forgiveness for its late issuance. However, the challenge and adversity have provided us an opportunity to know who we are and to unlock our true strength.

In the pursuit of their excellent academic career, prasadians have even excelled themselves in other aspects of their lives. Some of them have ventured out in the depth of their imagination to find out the gems. Some others have displayed their writing skills. Deep impressions of the two academic years in the academy have become a matter of sharing for some of them. Of course the class-wise photographs are the best to recall the moments in future. As a matter of fact, the magazine is a beautiful collage of memories to cherish later. Finally, vote of thanks to the resilient, talented and optimistic prasadians for their hard work. Thanks are due to the chief sir and the teaching and non-teaching staffs for their all support and encouragement. We are indebted to all the helping hands for every kinds of assistance for the publication of this wonderful souvenir.

MESSAGE

I am pleased to know that Prasadi Academy, Lalitpur, Nepal, is bringing out another edition of its regular publication 'Prasadi Souvenir 2077' on 23rd years of establishment.

COVID-19 has widespread effects on every walk of life and so does in education sector. Government of Nepal's high priority is to protecting people's life from this pandemic. Continuation in imparting Education even in this hard time through alternative means, at least, has not lapsed academic year of the students.

Education is the key to meet human resource capability needed for the development of nation. I believe that any academic institutions should continue their efforts to provide quality education followed by the latest teaching and learning methodologies to the student to develop such knowledge in this rapidly changing technological and informative age. I am happy to know that Prasadi Academy has tried the best in this matter on both odd and even situations. The work done by this Academy in educational field is commendable.

I extend my cordial greetings to Prasadi family and wish the publication all success.

MESSAGE

I am pleased to hear that Prasadi Academy Secondary School, Lalitpur is publishing its annual magazine "Prasadi Souvenir 2077."

Educational institutions should take care of all aspects of development of students to shape them into empowered citizens of the future. Development of character and also sense of value is very important for the formation of the future of the children. Over the years the successive principals and teachers worked steadfastly which has enabled our students to reach their goals and has nurtured them to become responsible global citizens.

I hope that the magazine will showcase some of the best creative endeavours of the students and also have a great role in promoting the feeling of nationalism and integration among the students.

My best wishes.

'I' AS A PRASADIAN

The memories start to fill our minds from the first thought of being 'I' as a Prasadian. The moment when the first day, the first period started without any introduction was shocking. Actually Prasadi represents the true saying of Shiv Khera "Winners don't do different things. They do things differently". That moment when we weren't introduced, made 'I' as a Prasadian challenge to make our own identity in the school with our deeds and achievements.

The most joyful, entertaining and outstanding teachers are here to make your day. I am the one who was quite sad on the beginning by the checking papers in Prasad Academy. But, when I received the result of grade 11, I realized why the checking system is made so tough. Prasad made me realize the power of believing in myself. 'I' as a person started to feel empowered, evolved and developed when 'I' became 'I' as a Prasadian. The one who faces failure in Prasad has to carry up their task without giving up.

SH sir's, SSA ma'am,s and ND sir's lectures must be heard carefully. Their words and their motivation made me feel that 'I' am always different from others. All teachers are outstanding and truly the best mentor of my life. Whenever, I will remember Chief Sir, I will feel grounded and realize the values of life. He inspires me to be 'being human' rather than 'just a human being'. The things which I used to hear about Prasad "it's so strict.....", but, the reality is just beyond the expectation. The memories and time spent with my Prasad friends were all unforgettable. The journey from E1 to T5 with my hilarious and fun-making friends will always be a portion of my heart. Being 'E1' in grade 11 was the luckiest thing to happen to me in Prasad because, the only one section that could go home one hour earlier, was ours. Whenever I will see those group photos and memories back, there will be tears in my eyes, smile in my face, and love in my heart. "Once a Prasadian, always a Prasadian". Prasad gave the significance of believing in myself i.e. 'I'.

MY JOURNEY IN PRASADI

My Journey in Prasadi started two years ago with all unknown faces around the country and new surrounding. It was obvious to get nervous but later I realized that friends and efficient teachers were so friendly, that they made me feel like home.

Prasadi has been an important part of my life. It has been an important page that has been locked in my heart as a memory forever. Prasadi paved a path towards my goal. Strict rules and regulations, made me realize about the enjoyment within the boundary of discipline. Every monthly test and terminal examination made me focus towards my goal. Prasadi taught me to be punctual and to work in time. The motivational speech of chief sir made me alert in every aspect of life. Doing homework regularly, visiting library just to see horoscope, standing in a long line for food, were unforgettable. Saturday was really a 'Holy Day'.

Each moment was a blessing. Every one I met were fairies of our tale. Though the lectures, library memories and canteen moments have ended, they will always flash in my memory. I am stepping out with a bag full of memories which will always haunt me. Though the days have passed but memories of Prasadi will be never ending.

For me, PRASADI is the best. So I want to thank Prasadi for filling infinite unforgettable memories in my bag.

AND IT'S TIME TO SAY 'GOODBYE'

From thinking 'how to spend two years in all these strict rules,' to now, 'how to say goodbye, where you learnt to be the real human.' Yeah, it's all what we think. Being a 'Prasadian' is not so easy. We have to face various things like surprise bag checkings, that 20min of lunch break where we have to face that long queue for coupon and finish our lunch, that sudden entry of chief sir in classrooms and finding yourself under the observation of CCTV, monthly tests, homework and the competitions to get your name in top ten rank position in your internal examination.

All these will be missed now. RL sir's funny jokes, DKP sir's laugh, SKK sir's motivational speech, BPP sir's, URT sir's and GT sir's togetherness, bond and smile. Teachers' hard work and that one day of picnic where fun was unlimited and memories are forever. Prasadi where we found unlimited memories to keep forever. Prasadi where we learn to find that small happiness, learn to have fun in strict rules where we came to know about togetherness and unity. The discipline and management of each second are the main themes which made us punctual and versatile. Competition defines you in Prasadi.

These two years were the best years of my life. The decision of being a prasadian is the best decision of my life. I felt proud to walk into school and back home as a Prasadian with envious eyes. Prasadi might have been annoying, difficult, awkward and irritating at times but admit it, you are going to miss it because no matter how much you want to, you can't return. Maybe we were all quick to count days but we forgot to make the days count. Endings are inevitable. By the time, you are reading this, we would already have been an ex-Prasadian.

I now think 'how lucky' I was to be a part of the Prasad family, to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard. Thank you everyone!

Be a cultured one when you graduate from this place. Where care is culture, Proud to be Prasadian!

WHAT WE NEVER FORGET

- ▶ KBP sir saying 'Nonsense' - We will not forget you saying 'Takka sangale chup lagera garne'
- ▶ BBP sir saying "Thik cha tah, sabie aaune parxa, Hey guys sajilo xa hae!"- Sir you should be an actor.
- ▶ SH sir's football gossips and regrets – Sir we shall watch football hae.
- ▶ MKG sir threatening us- Sir we have got strong teeth and jaw.
- ▶ AD ma'am's cool attitude
We will not forget you saying "aaile samma maile kasaele tah bhaneko xaina"
- ▶ SND sir saying in bindass way when we make noise "Ma paddaudina , Maile birse" sir "hernu uh thyo kta sutyo"
- ▶ Panthi sir's dance in picnic- "sir you are a real fighter we all respect you".
- ▶ JPY sir's dressing style- "Sir, you are still a model".
SK sir's undying teaching spirit.
- ▶ Sir we respect you by greeting you with a 'Namaste'
- ▶ RPY sir's kindness in the last period
Sir, "May we go to toilet?"
- ▶ RKS sir making us stand and asking questions from nowhere
Sir, your teachings are great. You are a motivation.
- ▶ Chief Sir's management and care.
Sir! Stay healthy and follow the precautions. We all love you.
We love Prasadi!

MY JOURNEY IN PRASADI

Travelling in the vehicle of time, after SEE, in search of +2 schools, I arrived here at Prasadi. I stepped into the academy, being quite unknown about the system. But the surrounding present here really surprised me. Only after some moments, I felt that my universe has been completed after joining the academy. The amazing atmosphere at Prasadi influenced me very quickly. Being academically excellent, the institution provided me an incredible opportunity to meet these strangers who now have become a part of my life.

It's impossible to forget all those helping hands of my respected teachers, who enabled me to continue my journey in a very interesting way. I am really indebted today towards the faculty members, who not only developed disciplinary ascent but also in shaped punctuality in me. The single minute left to enter inside the premises revealed me the real value of time. The inspiration provided by our honorable chief sir and our counselors always provided the will to succeed. As a whole, the academy is praise worthy for playing a dedicated role to improve my academic performance.

Time has elapsed. I feel as if I had only just joined the academy yesterday and today, I am here to bid goodbye. In the same vehicle of time, I didn't realize the passage of these two wonderful years. However, memorable experiences with wonderful fellows and endless love and care given by our teachers will stay forever within me

Proud to be a Prasadian!

TRAGEDY

Biding you farewell
It doesn't seem. I did it.
Something, today. I can't explain it.
Has sparked off a few questions
As to when we held our hands the last
Innocence, you saved me agonized many punishment.
Did you tire of accounting for my mistakes and errors?
Curiosity, you led me to discoveries and enlightenment
Did I annoy you with my questions numerous?
You opened these eyes. Admiration to respect in matter, small or giant.
I decided we'd befriend education
you refused to coexist .oh tell me why?
Happiness, we cavorted together
Whether it rained or festival came
The sky cried this morning; a festival walked past
Why did you stay back?

The heart smiled but with reluctance
I wanted to grow, grow up and grow out
Crazy in my pursuit of power and luxury
Oh my childhood I have realized
What seemed amazing this is all illusory?
I lost you, with a smile on my face
Under the delusion that perfection lay ahead
I never looked back until reality hit me in my chose
And today, still silent, regretful and dejected.
I admit I was selfish
Can I ask a few questions?
Why did you keep quite?
Why didn't you stop me?
You thought I'd be happier achieving my aspirations?
I can't tell you how things turned out to be.
The sun has set the night is dark, cloud and scary this emptiness I can't stand this loss and this tragedy.

MY FIRST DAY IN PRASADI

Let's have a flash back on the first day of Prasadi. As I was in the morning shift student, I hardly managed to wake up at 5:45 am. I dressed up within 10 minutes, by carrying huge sack like coded back and by wearing loose coded dress that I had never worn before. Then I rushed to my bus stop. I saw many prasadians on my way. But they all were just a stranger. No sooner had I reached the college, I searched my section i.e E7. After that. I met chief sir. He told me, "You are 5 minutes late!" Honestly speaking, after that I used to reach school on time. URT sir made our seat plan. BP sir made us hear a list of rules and regulations of Prasadi. GT sir made us write our daily routine including, 50 minutes long period and 20 minutes break. We were provided with academic calendar which is full of monthly tests, terminal exams, send ups, pre-board Numerical tests, and results. But, I am totally concerned with only holidays which were least in count. That really upset me.

How can I forget our Pandey sir holding a walkie talkie and roaming around classes. These all things really satire me a lot. I found myself as a prisoner of Prasadi, but, later on, I became habituated with such rules and regulations, and felt quite comfortable. As I am frank in nature, I made many new friends within a week. And the same 50 min long period became full of joy and laughter, and 20 min short break became enough to have a break and even enough to complete our practicals.

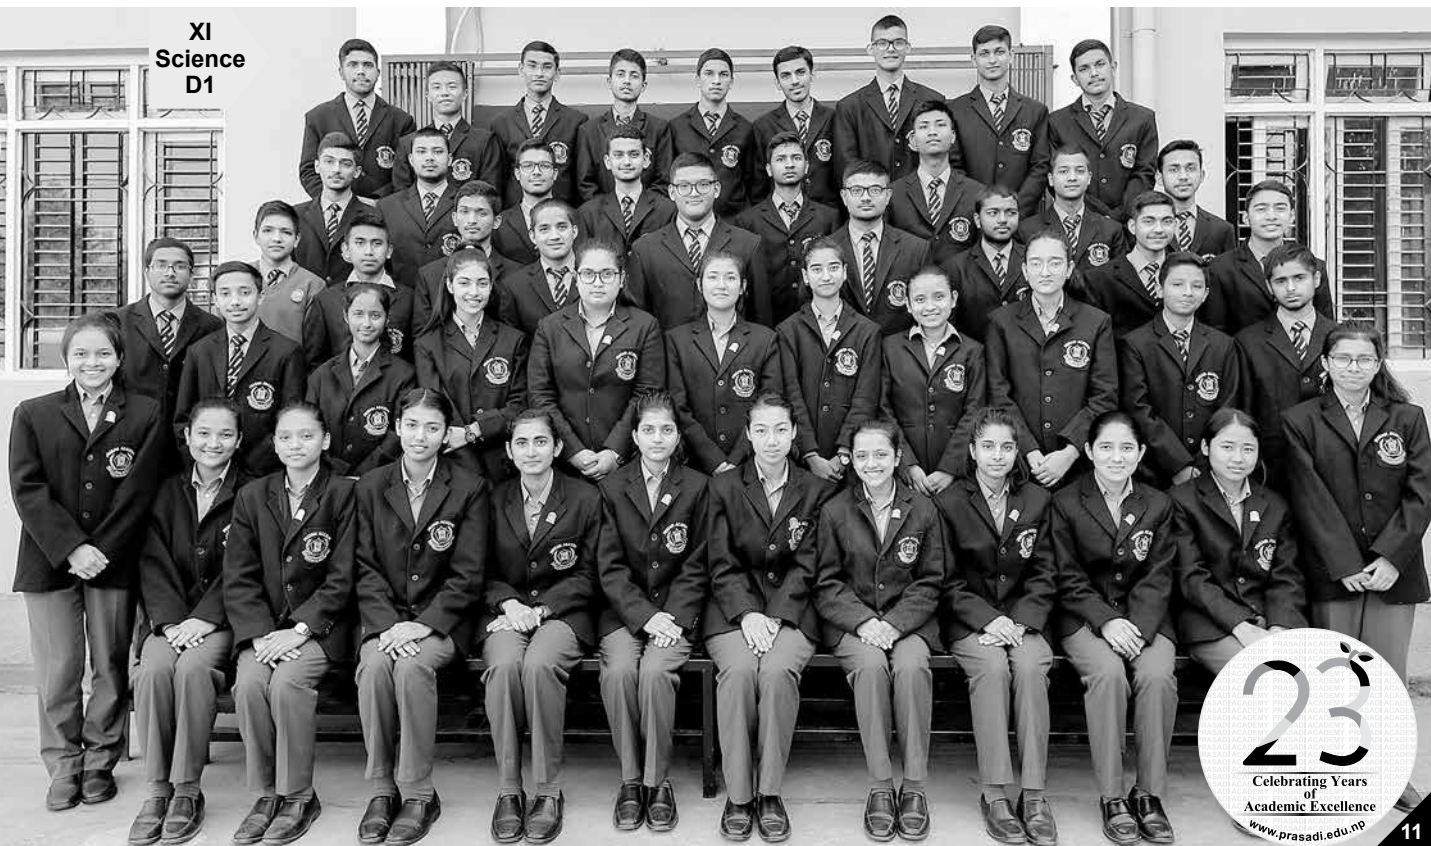

This is how my entire first day of Prasadi turned out to be awesome. Believe me, these rules and regulations are going to satire you too. You will find yourself in "struggle for the existence". Later on, you will be counted as one of the member of "the survival of the fittest" Always update yourself with good version of yourself.

DEAR PRASADI

With little hopes and lots of expectation
 I stepped into Prasadi to learn a better lesson
 Prasadi you helped me a lot providing the platform
 You taught me actual meaning of 'Values and norms'
 I learned to be punctual after stepping this institution
 I learned to tackle every obstacles of every situation
 You gave me the friends who support me a lot.
 "True Friendship" is the memorable lesson which they have taught you gave me the teachers who boost me up
 They filled all the valuable lesson in my empty brain cup
 Now looking the days which I spent at Prasadi
 I wish I could be back to those days which I see
 Thank you Prasadi for making me the better person
 9355 is my actual identity which I will ever mention
 The institution whose care always have been the culture
 Tell me Prasadi where I find someone like you in future.

PRASADIAN: ALWAYS AND FOREVER

As I come to the end of our school year, my heart aches a little that I will never be able to step into the school, make it back like how it was. I will never be able to get into those lectures again and never be able to wear this uniform again. About in a few days, I will have my last few classes, carry the bag for the last time and wave a final goodbye to my friends and teachers. I would never want to lose what I've got in Prasadi. We are close to being done with high school and moving on to the next chapter of our lives that we forget the little things. As much as you may hate going to school or sitting in classes, just think this is probably the last time you will ever sit in the classroom. For the last time, I just want to sit back and enjoy it while it lasts. I am going to miss having all my friends at the same place and time. I will miss the study group sessions where nobody actually studied. I will miss the people that made my years at Prasadi so bearable. Today is one of those days for all of us. Today we say our goodbyes but "how lucky am I to have something that makes saying goodbyes so hard"

Prasadi will always remain a kaleidoscope of memories- they are not always linear but each one is important

Prasadian, always and forever!

SHE AND ME

The love dripping through her eyes,
 The glimpse of care tending to rise,
 The sudden but familiar sounding advice,
 The synchronization of her wish and my life
 The whirlwind of her feeling to make me wise,
 Her love for my life and my life for her love,
 Her distinct derivation of a formula of love
 Her willingness to see me flourish and sacrifices to see me smile,
 Oh! They are simply amazing
 Blend of her graceful attitude and strong determination

She, looking dreams through my eyes,
 Me fulfilling them through my hand,
 Her audacity for a good reason,
 Teaching me to be bold,
 her inspection to my room to make sure I 'm safe,
 Her beauty, her allegiance, her blessings,
 her positivity and her presence
 They are serene and lovely; shiny like gems
 She is as lucky as she only can be for someone,
 Only a mom; AAMA

I WILL MISS YOU, DEAR PRASADI

The first day when I stepped into the premises of Prasadi, that moment I had said to myself "These two years are going to be really tough" because all the rumors I had heard about the strictness of this school had fastened up my heartbeat. It's that day and it's today I feel like "was it really two years? When I remember my first day, it seems as if it was yesterday. These two years flew in a snap of fingers.

It has been the most hilarious two years of my life : full of agony of homeworks, carrying bag, trying our best to widen our eyes during boring lectures, swallowing the canteen food to satisfy our empty tummy, these things will vanish in just a few days.

By the way, the smile is of GT'S sir's would change your entire day. The master plan of KBP sir with his scolds for our nonsense activities is remarkable.

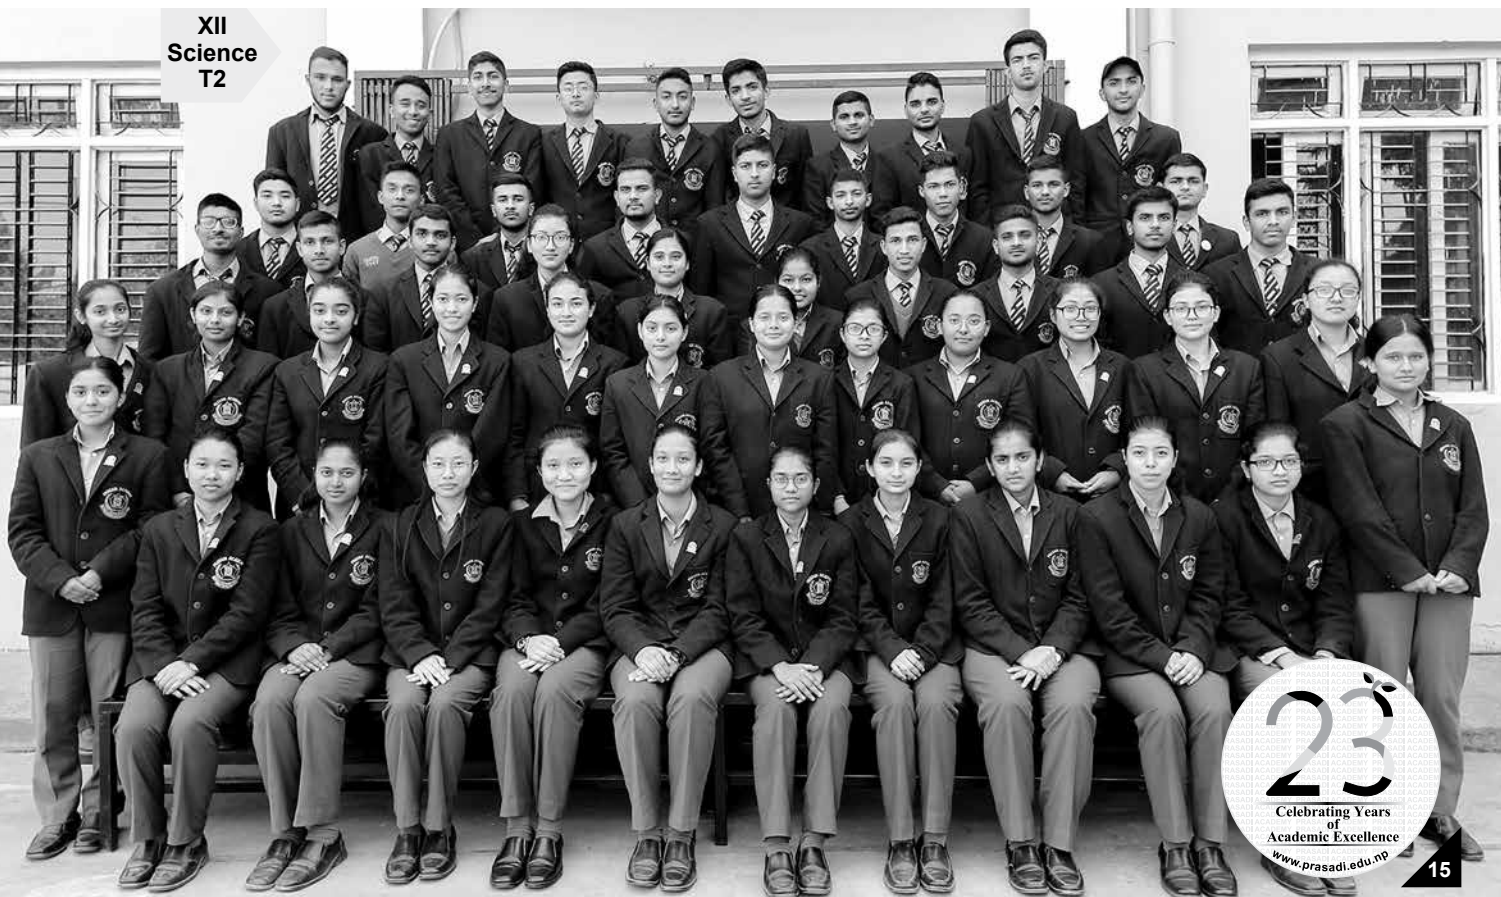

The words of SND sir will always be with us in our everyday lives.

MKG sir says "Not to make noise" and his one minute stare would definitely shut our mouth. Whenever BA ma'am starts to make us write notes, her sentences comes out faster than Eminem's rap & if we'd manage to complete it before our friend's then blush with our cheeks becoming bigger and bigger. SP sir shouts at us and later he says it to be an example.... You got me right? Sometimes I think, may be tortoise moves faster than RPY sir's teaching and still no one knows how he completed course earlier than others.

Besides all the memories the stress of doing homeworks till 3 a.m. in the morning before the checking day is on top. To be honest, most of us used to count days to leave Prasadi and now, it seems to be like the hardest GOODBYE. I WILL MISS YOU, DEAR Prasadi!!!

'MEANT TO BE' AND MAKE IT 'MEANT TO BE'

You know what? somethings in life are just meant to be but some, you have to make it 'meant to be'. While living in Dhankuta, I hadn't even heard about Prasadi but when I came here in Kathmandu. I came to know it's the top plus two. My parents insisted me to join Prasadi. So, I was meant to study in Prasadi. After joining here, I was meant to make friends.

Some friends turned out to be very good but some didn't. Things didn't go well between me and some of my friends, so I guess, that we were 'meant to be' but the decision of leaving their company was the thing I made it 'meant to be'. My studies here at class 11 was poor which was 'meant to be' but the improvement I did in board exam was the thing I made it meant to be. So, my dear juniors, somethings in Prasadi are just meant to be like:- it's rules , it's strictness, it's time schedule, but it's up to 'you'-how you make your journey. In these two years in Prasadi I learnt many valuable lessons which are definitely worth it and is going to help me to make my life better. I can say, this adventurous journey was meant to be and some I made it 'meant to be'. I just want to thank god for choosing friends like sunshine for me. Yes, my friends from section E3, E2, T 10 and T 11 are the reasons I love Prasadi more than anything else. My two years of journey was filled with bliss and laughter' because of them.

My friends are indeed my motivation. From each of them I've learnt new things and found good vibes. Staying away from my family, especially Mom has always been challenging to me but because of my friends, I was able to cope up with any situation with a huge smile on my face. Those laughs until tears bursting out, those mischievousness, those secret codes and names and those gossips will always remain fresh in my memories. Not only friends, all the teachers who taught us will always hold great respect in my heart. I adore some of my teachers a lot: SKS sir, RPY sir, SND sir, AD ma'am. BSC ma'am and SR ma'am. I will not fail to say that BPP sir is the best. Being a math student in class 12,

I got to know him more. I would always remember his motivating speech in the middle of class. When my result wasn't good, the belief of BPP sir made me work harder. He believed I could do better and I did. I just want to thank you sir. You are an awesome teacher. Prasadi has indeed helped me to grow into better human than I was 2 years back. I will always miss my gang and our craziest deeds. The journey from Prasadi to home and home to Prasadi in a local bus and on feet is one of the best memories. At last, I'm leaving in vanity that no Prasadian will be ever able to take my code i.e. 9676.

Supriya Rai

TWO YEARS OF MELODIES!

Oh yeah, immortal moments spent here is priceless. Releasing a knot of chaos of confusion stepping into a new world of education gave me some traumas as a powerful weapon that has empowered me.

me a lot. The time has really united us, & made us depart. And yes, no one can steal these precious and melodies of re-collection.

These two years of countless memories with hundred of smiling faces around gave me a verge of goose bumps. From wonderful lectures to the yummy canteen’s food brings a glimpse of happiness on my healthy face. That insane crowd and skeleton dance in picnic with full of madness was unforgettable. We, the hungry learners: rushing for lunch to the canteen will be missed . The dialogues of teachers made the classes more interesting. Those giggles, laughter, melodramas and pranks with friends overwhelmed

Of Course, without integrity there is no existence of confidence. The feeling of being a Prasadian is “The Best”
 Little kindness of courtesies
 Take the hope of a saint as guide
 Tender feelings and emotions of the heart
 Essence of failure pays off!

MEMORIES THAT I WOULD CHERISH

I still remember “My First day as a Prasadian”. I was so nervous that I asked where the library was instead of asking for E1. From E1 to T3, those two years were filled with joy and will soon be in my memories. I still remember that day when I first entered E1, filled with strangers and now while I am leaving T3, it is filled with my dearest friends whom I don't wish to depart from. From a friend to a best mate, those two years has given a lifetime of memories that I will cherish.

All the teachers have played a great role teaching us, motivating us for doing better, giving us inspiration that ‘in life one has to be strong’. What happened if you fail once? You have many opportunities you must grab it, keep on trying and give your best.

Sadly there is not much time here. Those two best years of teen was indeed worth spending here in Prasadi. And in a few months, we will be running behind our dreams but these vivid memories in Prasadi will always remain with us. Life is not about waiting for the storm to pass, it's about learning to dance in the Rain. Lastly, PROUD TO BE A PRASADIAN !

HIGH SCHOOL DAYS

It was the first day of college. New dress (completely grey) ,new shoes(oversized) and new bag like a sac with heavy books. Entering inside the Prasadi's gate like a cartoon was somewhat boring because of not knowing even a single person. I went to the class and sat with those girls whom I had never seen before. I still remember it was the first class of RKN sir. He came, took attendance and started teaching limits even without introduction. All of us were appalled & finally after 150 minutes; there was a tiffin break of 20 minutes on which we could not even finish our half lunch. Making few new friends, our first day on Prasadi passed.

On starting days we felt much stressed because of the homeworks, suffocated for not being able to adjust with those strict rules and getting bored because of lengthy lectures. Days passed on and we started being used to all those activities. To be called as the good class in 11, E3 was proud but grade 11 turned out to be tedious. Entering new section and reminiscing memories of the last year with old friends, the journey to the last year of Prasadi began. Our section T2 turned out to be the most talkative class of grade 12. Days weeks and months passed but we never stopped rushing to canteen and running faster on our way so that we wouldn't be late to our class. Evaporating whole solution mixture in chemistry lab which was just to be boiled is the best memory I have on practical labs. The fun that we had at the picnic was really incredible.

Prasadi provided us a chance to get connected with colleagues from eastern to the far western region.

Friends from almost all parts of our country, tied with the strong bond of friendship is one of my great memories. Moreover, we learned to be punctual and to adjust in any situation which will definitely be an important lesson. This correct path will always be a part of high school memories.

These two years passed unknowingly and to be honest, grade 12 passed within a blink though it was difficult to adjust on grade 11. All those experiences from being called a good class to the most talkative class, turning from strangers to best friends are ingrained in my memory. Now it's time to say goodbye to high school. Collecting all the memories and binding together, school life turned out to be an enduring memory.

SWEET MEMORIES OF PRASADI.....

Each and every moment spent in Prasadi will be remembered forever. Journey from E8 to T5 was so memorable that I could hardly forget. Caring teachers, who taught us the education of life and happiness in learning will be missed. Crazy friends with all the funny jokes, laughs and gossips that we enjoyed together will be missed. Picnic with all the crazy dance steps and unforgettable fun, rushing to school with heavy bag, smell of the canteen foods, 18 min break, loads of homework and practical will be missed. At the first day, I still remember the paper full of rules and regulations that was given to us. Prasadi taught us how to manage our time to find a pure place of knowledge in the mind. It was like yesterday when I stepped into Prasadi and now it's time to say goodbye with my heavy heart. Nothing stays forever but every moment of joy and happiness in these two years of my high school which turned into home will be in my memories forever. Those classes of SH sir, RPY sir, GT sir, AD ma'am, SSA ma'am and other teachers which we will never get again will be in my heart.

Thanks to all my friends and all teaching and non-teaching staffs for your love and support, I was made my journey of Prasadi very beautiful and memorable. Always remember to enjoy your student life with your heart because these days will never come back again.

Proud to be a Prasadian....

MEMORIES IN PRASADI

For me, everyday in Prasadi was memorable starting from the very first day. I still remember the first day of my class XI when none of the teachers who entered class neither introduced himself/herself nor asked us our names, they entered and started teaching. For me, E10 and T11 wasn't just a class section, it was a family who were always together and supported each other. I would never forget those days of talking and gossiping with friends and being scolded by teachers. Besides I want to thank Prasadi because, I was able to make lots of friends and some of them are very special to me.

One of my favorite memory: Dialogues of teachers:

- BBP sir: U know ni that, otherwise ni pheri.
(Thank you sir, you were my favorite teacher who taught us Mathematics could be this much fun and interesting.)
- BA ma'am: My dear students, you know....one of the student stand up and tell me...
- MKG Sir: We find....we find.....
- JPY Sir : Ok students look! At my side babu ho tapai confuse nahunuhola Who say ta you say.
- KBP Sir : A kta gar na re....numerical garna. Ok tell me the master plan to solve it.

- RKS Sir: Taisto na gara k... na gara.
- BBP Sir: Heat Change, enthalpy change
- RPY Sir: His every dialogues were no less than a short joke.
- Pen down...pen down, everything down.
  - Not understanding physics in class and feeling diarrhea in exam.
  - If you don't use mind then mind ta disappear.
(Thank You sir for making us understand physics in such a funny and enjoyable way.)
- SND Sir: Kura bujhiyo, a babu ala timi vanedeu ta maile k bhane.

These two years in Prasadi passed in a blink of an eye and I was able to make lots of memories here. I don't know why but thinking about my last day at Prasadi makes me feel sad. I never expected at the beginning that studying in Prasadi could be this much fun.

Each and every teacher, friends as well as other Prasadi members will always remain in my heart.

REMEMBERENCE

Today is the last day, I'm enjoying my school.
Passing from my childhood to different phases
Only if I looked ahead I will be missing my high school days'
All my friends from laughter gangs to those trembling with rage

Today I sat to think from project reviews to campus interviews
All those nick names to last bench games
All the culture of strict rules and regulation
Where the motto is only care and affection

Everything is still fresh in my mind
Only if I wish life to just rewind
Chatting and laughing we were all in elation
Till the painful moment of separation.

Now we all are apart from each other
To be greatest of all till we again gather
Some doctor, some engineer all following their aim
Would be a great pleasure for all to earn name and fame.

Everyone is now busy a lot
All meeting their destiny's plot
Though life is full of commitments and worries
All those cherished moments will be forever in my memories.
Thank you Prasadi Academy for all the awesome memories!!!

FICTIONAL BUT REAL

Entering high school is very nerve racking at first, because of the new teachers and new friends you'll meet, wondering if they're of terror or kindness. High school may look daunting at first, but with time, you will get to appreciate and treasure everything around your experiences.

Although it's been two years by now but I still feel like it was yesterday when I joined Prasadi Academy. The first day in Prasadi entering with lots of hopes and expectations, everything was so imperfectly perfect. Two years of journey came to an end. Someone has quoted it so correctly "School belongs to that one place where you start your journey crying and leave crying harder."

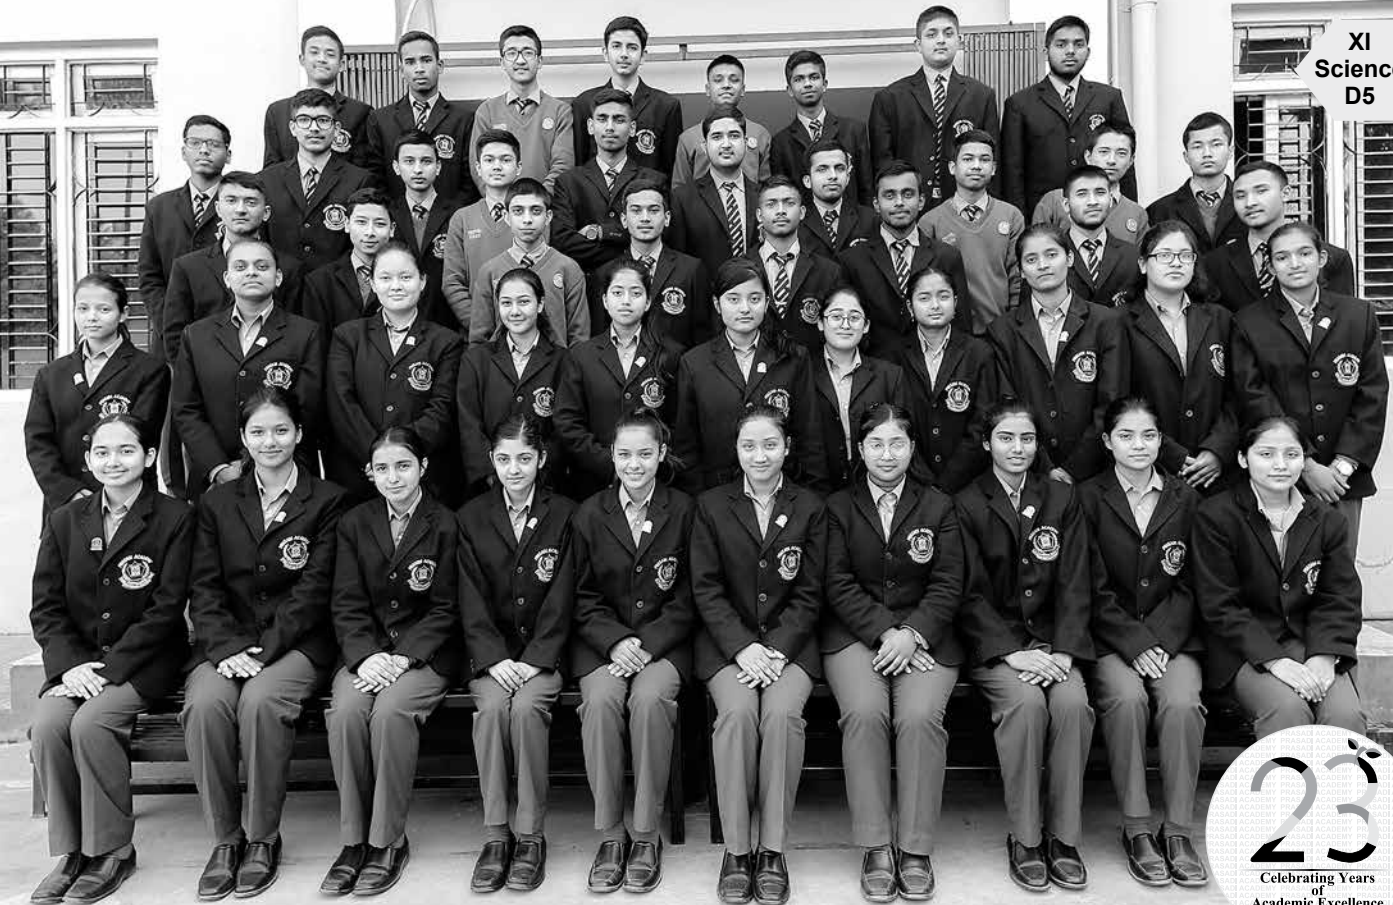

Although I don't remember what I went through when I entered Prasadi, but yes I do remember what it felt leaving. Combination of words can't describe that. Being a student drained with assignments, laboratory exercises and some issues are truly difficult, but think that if you have goals in life and you really want to achieve it as soon as possible, you will do all the things you can even when there are hindrances. There's a part of our life as student where we learn things at the same time we do fun and that is the high school life. Those mini heart attacks during tests, sitting on the ground during 20 minutes lunch break, following the endless talk- my mind is recalling all those moments while I'm writing this. I'm smiling now. I can call it the best phase of my life.

I am not ready to say goodbye to Prasadi but the time has come. Today is one of those days for all of us, being an ex Prasadian from a Prasadian. And, all those moments will be engraved in my heart. I have collected so many memories with my friends and I will miss them all.

'2' YEARS

Seems just a number,
But that's not only it is.
The memories that it carries,
The laughter that it bursts,
The knowledge that it engulfs,
The love that it showers
The journey that it describes.
And that what makes,
This 2 years fly above the skies.

TALENT AND HARD WORK

It is said that talent is inferior to hard work but it's just a delusion that people possess. Talent is something hard work cannot achieve. The people without talent are useless.

If what I said made you feel inferior towards the talented people you may know then you have already surrendered your possible upcoming success in life.

None can make you feel inferior without your consent. So why do you give your consent?

Talent is not always superior to hard work. Hard work beats talent when talent doesn't work hard.

The question "Am I talented?" is something that I find really stupid. 235 million people can't read or write simply because they are blind. 15% of world's total population is physically challenged. Even among them people such as Stephan Hawkings, Jhamak Kumari has found success. These people can find greatness having something so why can't you find it, when you have everything.

The path to success comes with failure. You don't have to run towards success, you can walk a step. But make sure you keep walking.

MEMORIES NOT COLLECTED

Memories refine ones character as it seems to have nurtured us in the past. The future I've imagined won't work on the basis of memories but will guide me in the right path. It's amusing how past gives us the present and the present decides what our future will be.

Patience is what it takes to be someone else's memory and perseverance makes the bond stronger. These 2 years of my teenage days were quite peaceful and full of inspiration, motivations, and life lessons, but without a dream. I studied hard unaware of what I want to be, unaware of the world outside me and unaware of me hurting other people. This lack of awareness has brought me into a phase where memories don't exist and I feel numb for not being able to collect any of those, while my friends were talking I was reading a fantasy when they are collecting most of what they were faced upon . I laid on my back imagining things that never exists, while they were having fun, I was too late to realize that I could have fun too.

Regretting is always an action of past giving you its glimpse in future. Regret gives me my lost colors of youth. I now can of youth. I now can only wish to be your memory which you cherish.

PRASADI: MY CAREER WAKEUP CALL

After passing my SEE examination with a great hope of learning and achieving great, I joined Prasadi Academy. Everyone had certain determination carried within them. Since that very day my new determination and my new journey began to achieve my dreams. The first day was difficult as it was entirely new environment and I was a total stranger to that place as everything was new. I checked my section and went to E10. All the faces were unknown. As I entered the teacher started teaching before introducing themselves. I was so excited to go to school hoping that everybody will ask me my intro about my passed school days. But it didn't happen like that. Suddenly, I realize how important my high school was to me. But today that my high school years have come to an end. Suddenly, I realize how important my high school was to me. Time flies so fast. It's been two years but it feels like yesterday. How quickly some of our precious days of these two years passed.

There is a riot of mixed emotions going inside. Couldn't think, whether to be sad or to be happy or to be both? For the first time, I felt how precious my high school has been in my life. And today that I 'm leaving, I realize that the days spent in Prasadi was full of joy and enjoyment even bounded in those rules and regulations. I'll never forget the lesson of discipline, honesty, hard work and the value of punctuality I learned here.

Prasadi has changed me a lot. The motivation speech by Chief Sir for our better future-his words, his sentences have encouraged me a lot. Because of Prasadi, I have started to 'DREAM HIGH'.

Prasadi has turned every single page of my life and today I'm wearing a crown of Knowledge.

Thank you so much Prasadi!

Those unknown faces from around the country have now turned into family. Although we all my be separated by this time but nothing will diminish the important role that each and everyone has done for me.

I can't describe how difficult and sad it is to leave a bunch of sweet and wonderful memories behind. But all of us have to do.

Prasadi has given me so many unforgettable reminiscence and it truly means a lot to me.

Choosing Prasadi was the best decision of my life and today, I can proudly say

I 'm happy to be a Prasadian.

2' NINE 2' DIFFERENT LESSONS!

Fighting with my parents just to be a Prasadian. I really had no idea about the rules and regulation that I needed to bind myself to be called a PRASADIAN. My heart bounced double when I saw the pages of rules and regulations. Gosh! I really didn't think once that my starting days on Prasadi would be that tough. Waking up early in the morning with loud alarm, getting ready, checking schedule and packing bag and rushing towards school won't happen anymore. The assignments and practicals should not be submitted within their deadlines anymore. Panthi sir won't be motivating us anymore. GT sir won't be laughing at my silly work anymore. I won't be asking time to my friends with sleepy eyes and yet will not stop to convert that remaining time to second. I need not buy a batch anymore because I won't be living this moment again.

From the very first day when my journey began at Prasad as a Prasadian, from the day 1st on E9 to this last day on T9, These taught me two different scenarios. My prasadi taught me to cope up with every single issue regarding confidence, morality and discipline. Flashing back the days on E 3, it was quite interesting when PL sir & RR sir used to encourage us, even during Lab hours. HA sir, Thank you! Thank you!, for your praising effort because physics would not have entered into my nerve if you were not there! Back to the point, Days on T9 were so fun that every single day on my T9 at last, always used to end with something surprising and interesting.

Importantly, motivating teachers like HA sir, BPP sir, PL sir and RR sir, thank you for everything. RL sir laughing at us as we always rushed towards the canteen, RPY sir's and SH sir's jokes. AD maam pointing at girls, MKG sir staring at us. Sneha being alert on JPY sir's class. We got lots of memories from JPY sir's class. RKS sir and SND sir's lectures, BPS and BBP sir teaching style.

All the memories given by my Prasad will be cherished and non-teaching staffs also gave us bitter and sweet but worthy experiences within the premises. Prasad was my best experience, that's what I felt going through this pen and page. Prasad, you have taught me many many life long lessons besides those Integrations, Numerical and Derivation. Forever, a Prasadian!

FROM STRANGERS TO FAMILY

'Friends are the family you choose for yourself' Entering the school, the only thing that came into my mind was, how to pass these 2 years and now, I am wondering how the time runs fast. Journey from E8 to T5 was amazing, I had a small friend circle with lots of memories.

From studying to giving tests seriously, and hoping to do better in next tests every time, we ended up getting similar marks. Playing 'rock, paper & scissors' during lunch break was fun. Endless home works, monthly tests, copying practical was also fun which is going to be missed a lot.

RPY sir, SH sir, SSA ma'am, SND sir, AD ma'am, both SP sir, GS sir, JPY sir and all teachers, Thank you! For making high school memorable and fruitful. Thank you for scolding us, also for educating us.

All of those dialogues and scoldings will constantly run in my mind for the rest of my life. I will miss my friends, teachers, canteen's food and overall, Prasadi Academy.

THE TWO DIFFERENT ME!

Holding a pen in my hand and re-calling those memories, I got from Prasadi Academy, I lost myself in that thought for an hour. I remember the nervousness I had while entering PRASADI ACADEMY on the 1st of shrawan, 2075. The feeling that 'How would I spend 2 years in this strict school? but, keeping this aside I always wanted to be a part of Prasadi Academy to get good results and have a bright future where Prasadi showered me with best of the bestest friends.

In grade 11 E8 I got caring and loyal friend Amrita with whom, grade 11 was fun. The teachers like HA sir, PL sir, RR sir, GS sir, SR ma'am encouraged and motivated me. The practicals wouldn't have been fun without the group I had where we used to laugh and work together.

have gathered in school will be in my heart. Sadly, the days have started to become shorter and here comes time where I wouldn't be sitting in classes, listening to the lectures, gossiping with my friends, laughing and giggling together but at least, I would be named a 'Prasadian' a tag that will always remind me of the bestest friends, teachers and the best high school life that changed my teenage into adulthood.

Thank you Prasadi Academy!! Always a PRASADIAN!

However, grade 12 was a turnover point where I changed completely, Don't get surprised the change was beautiful where I found the real me . All thanks to my precious and lifetime friends. The beautiful moments we spent together caring for each other and being there in highs and lows, proved our friendship among each other. The good company that I got in Prasadi from my friends and teacher, made the journey more interesting.

Prasadi's "where care is culture" is an example set by T9 where we cared for each other. The unity we showed at picnic made us closer. That wild dance making a huge circle and asking one more minute just to dance with each other forgetting about the hunger and tiredness has created a memory!

The classes wouldn't have been full of uncontrollable laughs without teachers like SH sir, RPY sir, JPY sir and how can I forget AD ma'am SK sir, MKG sir, RKS sir who always tolerated us being the reason for creating the loudest noise. Lastly, a tension for BPP sir, URT sir and GT sir with never ending gossips. From the five of us, all the memories that I

I WISHED FOR SOMETHING SO STUPID

I entered high school with a heart full of memories, eyes full of pain of leaving my dearest ones and ended up wondering in between those new faces who soon became a part of this wonderful journey where classrooms became our canteen; a place to have fun, bags, shirts and sweaters with code numbers became a pride. Teacher's lectures slowly became something I never cared of and exams, never my cup of tea. With time, crazy emotions started hitting each one of us. It was just the beginning and we came to the end of our high school.

I so wish I could stay here a little longer. I remember how badly I wanted to run away while I was entering inside the gates of Prasadi Academy. I just wanted the time to pass with a blink of an eye, but now I regret to wish for something so stupid because it has happened; it just did.

My two years in Prasadi , the roller coaster ride from E 2 to T 2 , the uncountable memories made with everyone seems like yesterday. Strangers turning into friends and everything in between. I grew. I wouldn't count the physical growth but mentally I am not who I was two years ago. Today, I can proudly say that Prasadi has made me stronger than yesterday, more determined towards my goals. Prasadi has taught me to take clear decisions regardless of the limitless fun.

I'm thankful to each and every teaching and non-teaching staff members for making this journey remarkable. Mainly, I 'm thankful to RPY sir and a few friends from the inner core of my heart who have influenced me so much. Throughout this time, all were unknown to this but nothing can change the fact that I am who I am today, because of them. These few people were of consistent support and an infinite source of motivation for me to keep moving forward. The golden word "thank you" is very small to the positive change you have brought in me.

I 'll miss the feeling of being with everyone : being with Prasadi .It'll surely be difficult to forget this odd sense of comfort in seeing these familiar faces everyday, but for now, my heart feels heavy because I won't be laughing out loud in the same classroom. I won't be scolded and loved by the same teachers and will never be able to come the high school ever again.

BEING A PRASADIAN

As I sat down today
To write about Prasadi memory
It turned out to be an endless journey.
But as I realized time waits for none.
But I made my effort to jot down some.

Countless giggles, cracking jokes
Not stopping even though it chokes.
What is the importance of one minute?
Ask the Prasadian Folks.

You call Prasadi a school,
I take it as a Palace.
You point out the burdens
And I shower you with all the fun.
Amusing talks and childish acts
They are the ones to be desperately missed.
And it's a sad but inescapable fact.

LESSONS FROM JAY SHETTY

Just because you have enough pennies or because you haven't felt the bar land, you aren't blessed. A feeling that lets you give up your chocolate bar to a child crying on the road gives you eternal peace, you don't need to run after luxuries for you can discover it within yourself. Just because your existence is never valued doesn't mean you're worthless. Just because people don't see your struggle doesn't mean you didn't try. Just because you don't get back the love you gave, doesn't mean you don't deserve love.

You know who you are and that's enough. Don't keep going after those who doesn't see you. Don't hold onto the things that no longer make you happy. Just because you enjoy their company, never beg them to stay in your life. You don't get peace by fakely praising others. You have done enough, now, it's your turn to take a step for yourself. Buy flowers, food and other things you love for yourself. Chase your dreams and stay committed, no matter what situation you go through.

Everyone who laughs at your lame jokes doesn't necessarily mean the world to you. The world is fake, darling. Identify their motives. In the race of loving others and getting back the same love, you have forgotten to love yourself. While healing the wound of others, you forget your wounds that are bleeding. Nobody will value your selflessness in the selfish world, until you value yourself.

Don't let the way they judge you affect the way you judge yourself. Believe and spend time with yourself. Trust me, you'll be proud. Don't stress about the things that isn't happening for you. Breathe, start again and hope for the better.

Never underestimate your self- worth. Just in case nobody told you, you're amazing when you smile. The world becomes brighter and you spread awesomeness in the lives you enter. You matter. Your existence matters. So, be positive and be real.

“DON'T BE A DREAMER, BE A DOER”

Every person who takes birth on the earth, from his first footstep to his last, he makes several goals. But only those people will become successful who do hard work, has strong determination and focuses on their goal. The dreamers and the doers have vast differences. There are billions and trillions of people around the world, where some people dream of success while others wake up and work hard for it.

Dreams are good, but the action is needed. Dreamers are those people who only talk about what they'll do after achieving it. They are the most thoughtful people of their own world, but doers are those person who do the things immediately. They are those people who never lose hope. They keep on trying until they achieve their goals.

I would like to tell all my dearest friends and my brothers and sisters to surround yourself with doers. Feathers of a bird certainly flacks together but, you should have more of doers friends near you rather than just dreamers. Dreamers only feed off each other, but if you are around doers they will inspire you to become successful. My friends!, keep your goals, achievements and milestones you set, for yourself. But, waste no time or energy on what others are doing. Focusing on your own result will keep them high, while focusing on other's takes time away from your achievement.

If you want to become an army officer from the bottom of your heart, but you failed in it even by giving your best, you shouldn't have to feel anxiety after failing. Nevertheless, nobody is 100% perfect in the world. Success, somehow, depends upon your luck. Not every doers become successful even though they give their best, because if it is not in your luck then you won't get the good result. Never regret a day in your life. Good days give happiness and bad days give experiences. Take risk, if you win you will be happy. If you lose, you will be wise. Last but not least, stay calm. Eventually you will end up where you need to be.

"Some goals are so worthy, they are glories even to fail" this quote was given by the Indian Army Captain 'Manoj Kumar'. He told that the goals you set and fail even though you give one best, those goals are so worthy to take pride.

STRESS VS FUN: HOW MUCH IS TOO MUCH?

In Prasadi, stress is a normal part of experience. When I entered Prasadi, it was in an entire new environment.

as Prasadi base is made only of rules and regulations. At first, I was a little uncomfortable with all those rules and regulations, but as I went into the depth, I found them fun, entertaining and experienced a true wilderness in those rules and regulations. Starting outside the classroom, bidding hello to your friends,

On the very first day, I was asked the definition of organic chemistry, instead of my name. Stress: it begins from there itself.

For me, high school was a breeze. I never studied, was unorganized and drifted off in class more often than I should have. When asked to submit home works, not only me but everybody in the class used to say next day we'll submit and when asked the next day, we would postpone it to the next week. Actually high school students are very good at procrastination. But, being a Prasadian, we always had a fear hidden thinking about what you'll do after school ends was really fun. Those stupid gossips during lectures, wild dance in picnic and different teaching styles of teachers fascinates me so much about Prasadi. I'm sure that everyone will agree with me that in enjoyed so much being a Prasadian. From the inner core of my heart, I would like to thank every single person associated with the school. You all have played a major role in our lives. From the supporting staffs who showed us the way to our these two years, we have studied together , played together , laughed together and above all we have loved each other a lot.

Prasadi, a place where, we lived our lives to the fullest, cherishing so many special bonds as well as forgetting something we had been carrying since a long time. It's an uncanny feeling altogether. Some say, high school is just a place where you only study, but all the experiences from Prasadi proves it wrong. Prasadi has improved me a lot. Before, I had no idea how to manage my time so that I could balance my social life with my academic life. I have

MEMORIES: THE TWO YEARS OF JOURNEY

I can still remember that first day in Prasadi. I entered the gate and waited at the cafeteria being totally uncomfortable. I entered at the cafeteria being awkward, excited and nervous at the same time. It was probably not easy stepping into the new world, especially for an introvert like me. I was being shown my section, it was E10, At that moment, I didn't realize I was getting an another family. I went inside the classroom, and my bench mates came too. When my teacher, PL sir called out my name for attendance, my heart skipped a beat. Some of the memorable dialogues of our teacher who taught us in grade 11:

RPY sir: "Observe it as well as absorb it"

KBP sir: "A boy, interesting student, enjoying here".

BA ma'am : "I will deduct your marks from practical "
" Now who will answer?"

GS sir: "Practice makes monkey perfect..... For climbing trees".

MKG sir: "Nonsense"

RR sir: 'May may' was so nice " (He says 'MAYMAY 'instead of 'MEME')

I still remember, most of us were rushing behind teachers to get signature on practical file a day before practical file checking from the chief office. At grade 12, we were separated to different sections. And, here comes another grade section T5, everyone was nice here too and there are also some memorable dialogues of teachers who taught us in Grade 12:

SH sir: "Why are you smiling nowadays ?"
Frequently ....(His jokes are lit)

KBP sir: "Takka", "Make a masterplan"

BBP sir: "Ok Students"

JPY sir: "Now who say the answer? Patlo Adhikari ji, you say"

SND sir : " If you aren't blind then you can know Samyojak " " stop class stop" "Stop class stop"

BPS SIR: "Now I forget what I was saying "I feel like something to say."

GT SIR: 'Oee' (GT sir smile, always makes my day)

RPY sir: "Pen down." "Use your Chinese calculator" (His jokes are lit too)

It was difficult for me to sit at the first bench and be the only girl who understood all the jokes. These two years of high school were so fun and memorable. Anyways, memories look far better in our hearts, rather in a paper.

DON'T RUN BEHIND RUMORS

With a throbbing heart, reluctance, anxiety tagged along with excitements and all the comments heard about Prasadi, we courageously stepped into the premises of the nation's top school, well renowned for discipline and strictness.

Stuffed with all strangers, it became a land enthralling like the effigy lands of Narnia where beautiful souls lived together in harmony from the very first day.

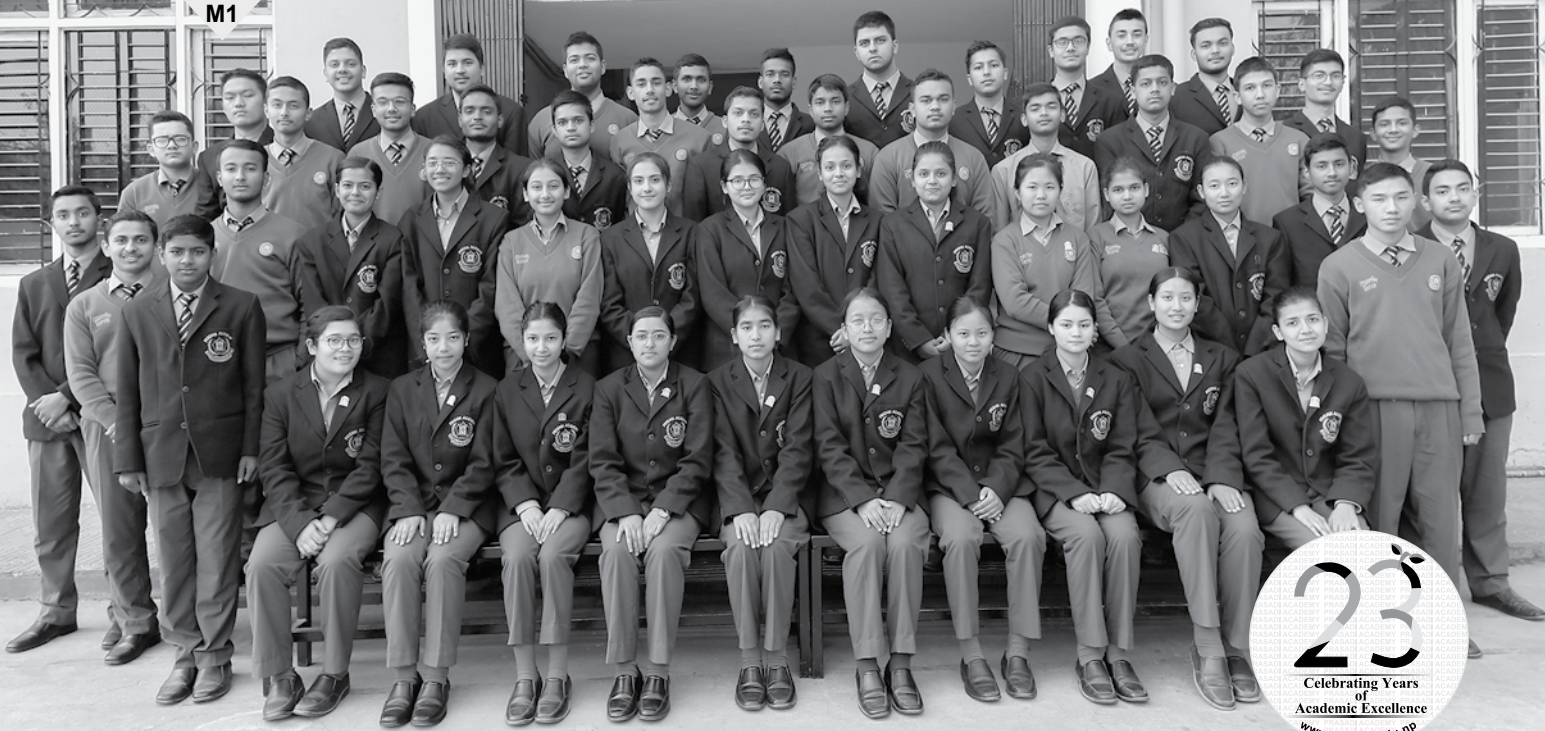

Initially hesitated to talk and cope up with each other which led to "Excuse me! May I sit here? Which school are you from? What's your name? And the very unusual creepy smile. However, by the end of the very first week itself; we started to unfold like the newly woven mufflers. And now conversations begin with" Hey. Did you do the homework? Scolding friends when they came late for school and for being absent. Well, a drastic change in our bonds.

Ever imagined of venturing Neverland, alone, not having Peterpan as your guide yet happened to meet some companions on your lonely path who is a complete stranger but ultimately turned out being the best accompany to trod on the unknown paths together? Yes! Prasadi was one such pathway to each individual who've found their companions, mates to have trodden upon the entire two years. Practically talking, those mates began from bench mates and finally ended with the last bench of the other columns.

Practical classes, which used to be the most awaited period of every student unless the practical documents were to be made ready on time for some lazy bones though. The most exciting practical would undoubtedly be chemistry because we got the chance to get the vibe of real chemist in the laboratory.

Talking about the rumors heard before joining Prasadi Academy got lost somewhere among that very mouth responsible after getting into. We actually realized the meaning to 'Don't run behind rumors; It carries anything but myth.'

MY MOST MEMORABLE DAY IN PRASADI

It was 6th Falgun 2076, our picnic was organized by the school. It was a golden opportunity for us as we were in Grade XII and it was the last month of our school.

The weather was fair and sunny. It was 6 am when I reached there in school, being properly dressed. It was smiley URT sir who advised me to get in my section bus which started on 6:30 a.m. We reached to dance for half hour; I started taking selfies and group photos with my friends. It was 11:30 am when I had snacks of more than 8 varieties. Again, I danced with my friends for 2 hours. It was wild and a crazy dance in group.

After dancing we took photos with our teacher and reminded them of their dialogues and jokes in class. They were appointed at different places to look after the Tribhuvan Park at 7 o'clock. This place was totally new for me as I am from outside of the valley. It was the first time, I had ever been there. It was exciting and joyful.

We were more than hundred, only of Biology group. At first, when we reached there, we had breakfast of more than 5 varieties of food items. Then, we started us from different angles. It was care for us from the Prasadi family.

It was a memorable day in my life to be there with the Prasadi family. I look at several pictures for memories and to feel nostalgic.

It was 2:30 pm when we had lunch with mutton and other food items. We all danced till 4 o'clock and enjoyed the dessert. We reached our school at around 4:30 pm and returned to our homes. It was an unforgettable moment. It was a totally different experience from what I had thought. I enjoyed a lot being together.

START//END

Pretty sky, above all lie,
Tell me right,
How come did I, not realize.
The flow we were into swiftly passing by?

The room I had walked into,
In this foreign place, of unfamiliar faces – I bumped into:
One year later twice, you have become the reason why.
I'm this reluctant of letting go,
of the knots, we've tied, over the time
Two years of school was magical;
I learnt, I strived, I dived deeper into the meaning of life
So that if anywhere in the upcoming, further
I am to fall down, I get up and smile
With or without a cause and continue to thrive.

Ever grateful for the friends I met,
Ever thankful for the family I made,
With your back and support
School life was never straight:
Twisted, bended, broken, mended, never the same:
Not even close- we were all amazing.

Spaceships and rocket pieces on we flew,
 with the alien crew
 Freely from the window sky no one ever knew
 So imaginary-
 Still "we ruled".
 My apologies to teachers for having performed complete absurd behaviors and being mischievous-
 It is fun: they said;
 if this ain't youth, how was it ever spent?

Pretty sky, above all lie:
 You've seen them
 Shy eyes, little smiles- looking away before they made each other's way.
 You've seen them-
 Person and personalities change
 Just like roses and orchids and sometimes outlandish and strange- ish : vibes

Be it teacher, be it classmates
 These moments of togetherness is forever engraved
 Joyously into our cortex
 Be it future, be it past events,
 For all we have is now- you must learn to aviate the present
 and if you couldn't ,my friend:
 We still have a spell bound future ahead
 Goodbyes are barely the end.

PAGES OF MY LIFE IN PRASADI- 'WHERE CARE IS CULTURE'

of experiences and new unexpected memories and event in Prasadi.

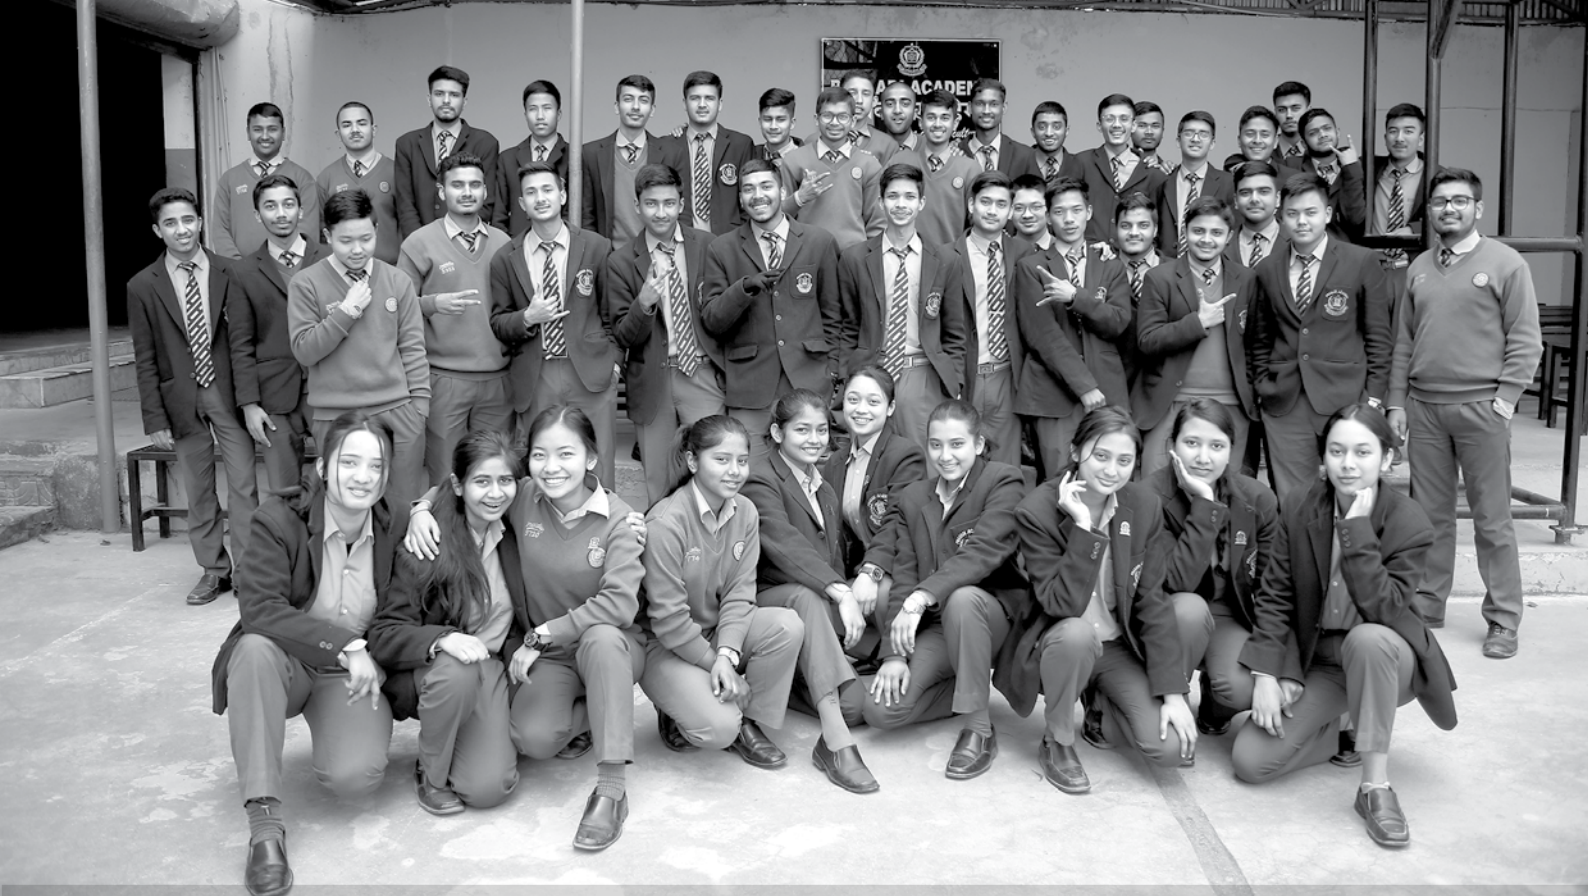

The first day, I still remember when I stepped into the Prasadi premises being tensed and nervous of the

Isn't it exciting and delighting to be at Prasadi for two years? It is an achievement and success for being a Prasadi member. Prasadians are the selected ones but not collected ones. Two years passed like a butterfly sitting on a flower flies away. Time passed with lots new environment. GT sir was the first one standing at gate with us smile who suggested me to check my class and section on notice board. It was strange to me when the teacher who entered in my class, started teaching their syllabus without even introducing themselves. I realized their responsibilities towards us. Later, I became familiar with our teachers. Some unexpected memories like staying in front of class for being late, motivated me towards my studies. I still have flash backs of some events in Grade XI, like those unstoppable lectures of BA ma'am, homework checking nature of MKG sir. I was scared a the scoldings of MKG sir. I was scared to sit by the window as we are observed and evaluated by the non-teaching staff from outside. The helping nature of our teachers have motivated and encouraged me to score good marks in the Board examinations of grade XI.

Time went on and I was promoted to grade XII which became memorable. I collected lots of memories and learnt to be hard working towards my studies. Flash of such crazy dance in picnic, surprise bag checking, unexpected questions asked in exams while standing in line, interactions with teachers and being teased by friend's surname who was very close to me are some unforgettable memories to me. Dialogues of teachers, jokes of RPY,GS and SH sir, the caring nature of AD ma'am, the scolding nature of GT sir, the helping nature of SSA and BA ma'am will always be in my memories. Prasadi has become a second home to me.

It was Prasadi Academy that cared for me a lot, by keeping me within boundaries of rules and regulations and paved a path to move and step forward to success. I am provided with lots of memories in Prasadi. I am thankful and grateful to the Prasadi family. It provided me with a U turn that has changed my life and provided me confidence to achieve my goals in life. Being like a prisoner for two years in Prasadi, I came to fall in love with my school. It is said that you can't understand the value of something in your life until you lose it. I am going to miss these days in the future after departing from Prasadi, as I have an unbreakable relationship and attachment to Prasadi. I proud to be a Prasadian from the inner core of my heart!

MEMORIES

You see? I am not going to summarize our two years of friendship. Yet I 'm sure, it's all been worthy. Worth the memories, worth a small part of my school life and what not. It feels like just yesterday, when I stepped into the premises of Prasadi Academy but look, it's been two years. Time really flows very fast. Well, memories can't be written in a couple of paragraphs, but still, I want to share my memories. Don't get bored, okay? I didn't only enjoy the memorable moments but also some of the bitter experiences. Sometimes, strictness leads to fun and creates the best memory. The surprise bag checkings, monthly tests and it's result, and RL sir's class are what I'll made my school life fun and memorable. Moreover, my friends made every moment very precious and unforgettable. Their help, support and funny moments are my best memories. It's truly said, nothing is ever lasting. Those times once spent together will fade away sooner or later.

I've collected some great memories from the Prasadi picnic to Tribhuvan park. It's quite funny but yes, its true, from the entire two years, it's only the day, we can enjoy. We danced the whole day there. If someone asks me what is the favorite thing about Prasadi, then I would say the Picnic Day. Delicious Food, oh my god! It still waters my mouth! I guess it's included in every student's article, but still I want to share a few which will remain forever in my mind, whenever, I hear their name. RL sir's SOOO SAD....HaHAHA , His sudden laugh between the lecture, DKP sir's lecture, he gives good explanation, SKK Sir's motivational speech. Now, all these are going to remain a memory for the rest of my life. The journey as a Prasadian was full of fun. It feels really sad to accept the truth that I'm, now leaving Prasad and my friends and moving ahead for my further studies. Lastly, I would like to say that my words are not enough to express my gratitude towards my dearest teachers and hardworking staffs of the institution.

You'll remain in my heart forever.
THANKS TO ALL FOR MAKING ME WHAT I AM TODAY!
GOOD BYE,

 These two years that I spent in this institution really went by in a blink and I don't know which memory I should pick. The mini panic attacks we had before every monthly or numerical test because 'kei padhelo dhaina' or 'kei naa aadana yaax' or even 'aaja ta fail ho' are some golden memories. The sneaking food in class and random laughing we did are all really close to me. The dancing we did in the picnic and all the fun we had while laughing like maniacs is simply unforgettable. All the super close people that made my high school life full of beautiful glimpses will always be significant. To tyanke, chax, bindu, sneha, diya and now, you guys will always be alive and important in my mind. Thanks a lot for making me laugh and feel loved!

Memories :

I remember the first day "I was crying with my parents not to let me study in this college". And finally the day arrived "I'm doing the same thing" but this time for not to say "good bye" to this college. Ouh! the word "Good bye". It hurts!! Between these days I gathered immense memories every single day I found myself in an amiable environment, with lots of nurture & care, which develop an encouragement & faith to do better things in my life. All those illogical laughs, copy games & pranks on ourselves are worth remembering. Oh god!! The journey from "E" to "T3" had changed my personality. The strong bonds with friends & teachers; together a "PRASADIAN FAMILY" cherishes my heart & are going to remain forever in my soul.

Memories: well, this little paper to write my best life time memories. Let me sum it up.. Getting friends with some mental illness is bheing isn't it? Guess what, all of my friends are crackheads but they all so pure that even when I call at midnight they'd be knocking my door. Picnic, canteen ko C. morno, that and that, last day even made our bond stronger.

Message: Be extrovert... talk to everyone then see how you gonna cry in last day. And yes... read nicely too.

 Memories:- Each and every day spent in Prasad is memorable. I had not thought this journey would end so fast. I will miss all the teachers and all my friends. I made memories of a lifetime with people I will never-ever forget. Though the beginning was scary and the ending is sad, it's everything in between that made it all worth.
 Message:- Enjoy every little moment.

 Memories = Never thought I would enjoy being in prasadi but these two years of journey was splendid and really amazing. I cherish all the moment I spent in prasadi. Those endless gossips, late night preparations for terminals, canteen time, laughing during lectures and of course picnic. These all things made my high school days, the best time of my life that I am gonna relive in my memories till I breathe.
 Message = Stress less and enjoy the best!

 Memories :- The memory from E'10 to T'10 gave me lots of memories that is unforgettable. Those unnecessary lookings, in classroom, RPY and Panth's (RPY) motivational words, RKS sir's innocent scolding and his smile smile is gonna stay permanent in my mind and will always remind me of college days. The In saree dance in Picnic is going to stay bold in my mind. Being Prasadian might make you feel bored in the beginning but I bet you don't want to leave at the end.

Journey from E10 to T10 proved to be as my luckiest no because inside these two section I get to know so many lucky faces who are framed as my best memories. Inside the core of my heart: All those gossips, Picnic wild dance, strict time punishment, inspirational words of RR sir, HAIR, RPY sir & BPP sir, those 15 min break, the care & love given by my roommate are the cause which is making me hard to say goodbye. If I go on writing than obviously it will be hard to end so to end up, the chapter "Grade XII & XIII" of book "Prasadi Academy" carries lots of memorable topics which will always be able to bring smile in my face in future.

Message: Dear Juniors, If you want to be happy forever in your life, then set a goal that commands your thoughts, liberates your energy, strength or vigour and inspire your hope. & Dear friends, (XII & XIII) Memories last forever, never will it die..... true friends stay together so never say goodbye. Memories: The journey from G6 to Vg was very interesting & memorable. Being a part of Prasadi Academy was itself a beautiful thing. I met many friends in Prasadi Academy & I had a good & beautiful memory with some of them. I met many teachers, every teacher's are very interesting, inspiring, amazing & the most important thing is their teaching style. It's just so very best that I love their teaching style. And lastly, the most important and a best memory was Prasadi Academy's picnic. It was just amazing.

Message: One thing to sure that you'll learn punctuality in Prasadi Academy (PA). Every single activity & P.D. is very important. So do what the teachers & other students say. :-)

I LOVE PRASADI :-)

Memories:
 We have lots of memory in prasadi.

Making fun of friends, having fun together & many more memories. In my view, I found class 12 most memorable. Going out with friends, picnics, having fun in classes, laughing, etc. I will remember the unity of my class. We have unity in all kinds of things whether it is the matter of tough or any other pressures. Beside the various restrictions & feeling of burden in Prasad Academy I have many memories & we enjoyed the restrictions as well.

Message:
 To my Juniors, you might be restricted by many things & may have feeling of burden. Take a chill & learn to enjoy everything & mostly you have routine & enjoy together.

MESSAGE FROM SCHOOL CHIEF

Date: 2078/04/15

The Covid-19 epidemic dismayed the entire world. It caused incomprehensible despair and damage to countless lives and livelihoods. The second wave, which Nepal encountered this year, has made matters more critical and urgent to our notice. Lockdowns imposed for prevention and control further created distress and uncertainties in various development sectors. The Academic field was one of them, as not many schools and students could offer or access information and communication technology (ICT) based learning.

Under such challenging circumstances, we were blessed and honored to utilize an online medium to continue our classes as smoothly as possible. For this, I would like to acknowledge all the generous effort and dedication put forward by our teachers, staff, parents, guardians, and especially our diligent students for cooperating with the new changes entertained.

I would also like to announce that the 'Prasadi Souvenir 2077' is finally here after much delay. I am ever so impressed by such creative and eloquent students for contributing their talents to pages. These records of mesmerizing memories and creations will certainly remain near and dear in our hearts.

This year, we accomplished 23 years of providing education to the future pillars of our nation. With every anniversary we encounter, I am filled with more optimism and ambitions for the next chapter. Today, I am hopeful for pleasant days ahead. On behalf of the institution, I wish for the safety and well-being of you and your loved ones. Again, we are tremendously grateful for your support and hope our bond strengthens every day!

May we meet again, very soon!

Thank you!
