Honoring Prasadi's Legacy of Love

As I now step outside the grand gates of Prasadi Academy, my heart heavy with emotions, I can't help but feel like the protagonist in a classic Bollywood movie who is facing the climax of an epic love story. Prasadi has not just been high school for me but it has been the setting for the most memorable chapters of my life.

Like a character in a movie, I've experienced the ups and downs in this journey, from the very exhilarating first day when I stepped into Prasadi's gates to the heart-wrenching realization that our time together is drawing to a close. These two years have been a rollercoaster ride of emotions filled with laughter, tears, and unforgettable moments. Prasadi has been my golden cage where I've found safety and security yet also felt the constraints of its boundaries. But as the final scene approaches, I find myself torn between the excitement of what lies ahead and the reluctance to leave behind the comfort of familiarity.

Every memory, every interaction feels like a scene from a blockbuster movie-From the late-night study sessions, the dramatic last-minute submissions of assignments, the heartfelt conversations shared in the corridors, the watchful eyes of the CCTV camera, the surprise bag checking, the long queue for coupon in the canteen to the moment of suddenly listening voice of chief sir in the Walkie talkie and getting a mini heart attack. And the characters that have graced this stage are the wise mentors, the quirky friends, dedicated and caring teachers who played their part in shaping my journey. As the credits roll on this chapter of my life, I'm filled with a mix of emotions. I show gratitude for the lessons learned, nostalgia for the moments shared, and anticipation for the adventures that await.

Prasadi, you've been my co-star, my confident, my support system and I'll carry the memories of our time together in my heart forever. So here's to you Prasadi, and to the love story we've written together. Though the curtain may be closing on this chapter, I know that the bonds we've formed and the memories we've created will last a lifetime.

With love and nostalgia

“Gentle Whispers”

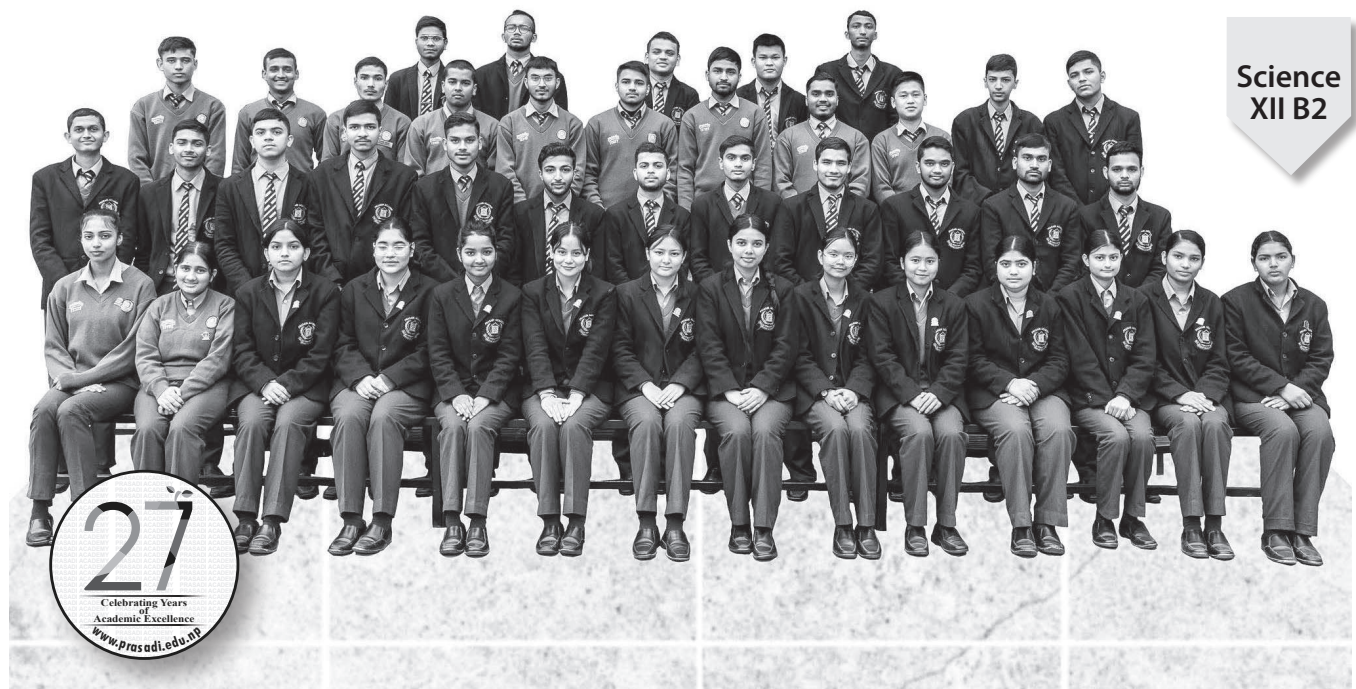

Oh! Merciless,
 You, please,
 Touch me not in a glorified manner
 So that, the appetite may sicken and so die
 Sprout up the waves of thought and kindle the fire of love,
 from the earth to the sky.

Oh! Destiny, Oh! Fate, Oh! Chance,
 Oh! Merciless, Oh! life. You please enchant.
 As a new bud opens with tender smiles
 So, life always deserve to hold a new flight

Into, and out of my broken heart.
 Only one cry, only one cry, and that is monotony's spy

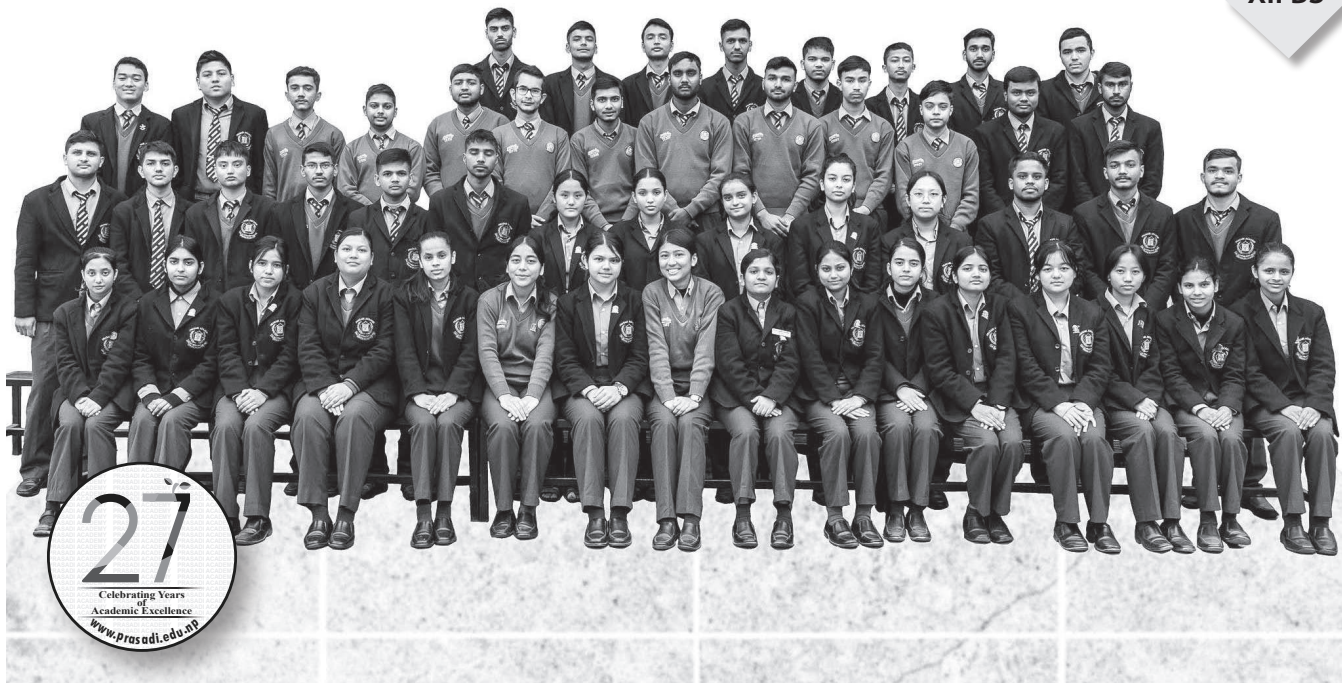

Oh! Merciless, catch it,
 You please!, Catch
 As such, a last moment of my faithful batch.

Incredible Journey of High School

Before coming to Kathmandu, I had decided to study at Prasadi Academy. Prasadi was my own choice. I was selected for the physical group but due to a delay in the admission process, the seats for the physical group were packed. Rather than choosing another high school, I chose the bio group and got enrolled in Prasadi. I think it was my destiny. I'd never regret joining Prasadi.

Unlike others, my first day in Prasadi was quite interesting. I had put on well ironed high school uniform without a tie and with an empty bag. Later I'd ask my friend beside me for some pages to write. I accidentally broke a funnel in the chemistry lab on the same day. This is how the journey started. I still remember the day when Chief Sir came to welcome us. He told us about Prasadi and guided us on how to adjust to the rules and regulations of Prasadi.

Being CR of B2 in Grade 11 and Executive member of IVC in Grade 12, it was an amazing experience to get connected with seniors and juniors, and to be part of meetings, programmes, etc. Prabha mam is the charm of IVC. Her dedication and guidance helped us to have the best experience and develop various skills such as communication, teamwork, leadership, etc. On the occasion of National Education Day 2080, the club members and some Prasadians were taken to Nepal Academy where Prasadi was awarded the 'RANK 1 NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL

Science
XII B4

AWARD! That was a proud moment to be there being a Prasadian.

I was blessed with the best classmates. I'll always cherish the unforgettable memories created with B2. All those special bonds, moments of joy, laughter and sadness will be forever etched in my mind. On our farewell day, when chief sir told us that we'd never get the chance to enter that channel gate again. It made me nostalgic. After the farewell, it was hard to admit and not to go down the memory lane. These days are lonely, and I feel isolated. I miss the laughter of B2, interaction with teachers, running in high school uniform while being late, classes of teachers, surprising bag checking, seat checking, dialogues of teachers: GS sir's "smell coming", KBP sir's "Yes Please...., Master Plan", YP sir's savage replies, URT sir's smiling face, GT sir's smile, AD mam's scolding and many more.

Truly, Prasadi is the place where care is culture. The efforts of Prasadi, the disciplined environment, the motivating teachers and their guidance taught the students the importance of punctuality, discipline and hard work. I express my heartfelt gratitude to the chief sir, teachers, Prasadians and non-teaching staff for this incredible journey of two years. I'm sure Prasadi will continue to thrive and achieve great success in the coming days.

These Two Years

The two years I've spent in this high school and the people and friends I've met will soon be a memory. I got admission in day shift instead of morning which was a good thing that had ever happened to me. Being students of physical group there were minority girls in our section. On the very first day I got to know two girls (Nabina and Smarika) and later they became my bench mates for two whole years. There was no introduction between teachers and students but teachers started teaching which was surprising for me. There were all new faces around me and the beginning days were annoying but as time passes I got used to the rules and teachers. I met some cool seniors which later became my friends. The homework, project works, practical, unexpected bag checking and monthly, numerical and MCQ test gave us headache. By the time the first year had come to an end, I made few friends and shared quite amazing moments with them.

We reached grade 12. All the fun then started. There were boys who risk themselves to entertain the whole class. Laughter's, eating chocolates, truth and dare during break , pranks, nicknames, gossiping and singing songs with my girls are moments that I'll never forget. Will not forget BPP sir, URT sir, GT sir smiling faces. Will not forget GS sir calling us (Nabina, smarika and me) three idiots. Will not forget teachers always calling out my name wrongly and ND sir confusing between me and Nabina. Will not forget picnic and our wild dance.

Here are the mostly used dialogues of some teachers:

BPP sir: Putting value getting answer (after solving questions)

SH sir: timiharu ley janekai phenol+ Zinc dust= benzene ho

ND sir: roll no.1 question no 1 (while discussing exercise)

RKS sir: good boy... good boy.(when anyone gives correct answer)

AD maam : eyy bacha haru suna

GT sir: make yourself positively charged

KBP sir: Padhne yesari ho

SLK sir: mahanata dekaunu pardaina

RPY sir: physics students ra teachers ley garera afthyaro vako ho

AKC sir: guys Listen (when everyone is making noise)

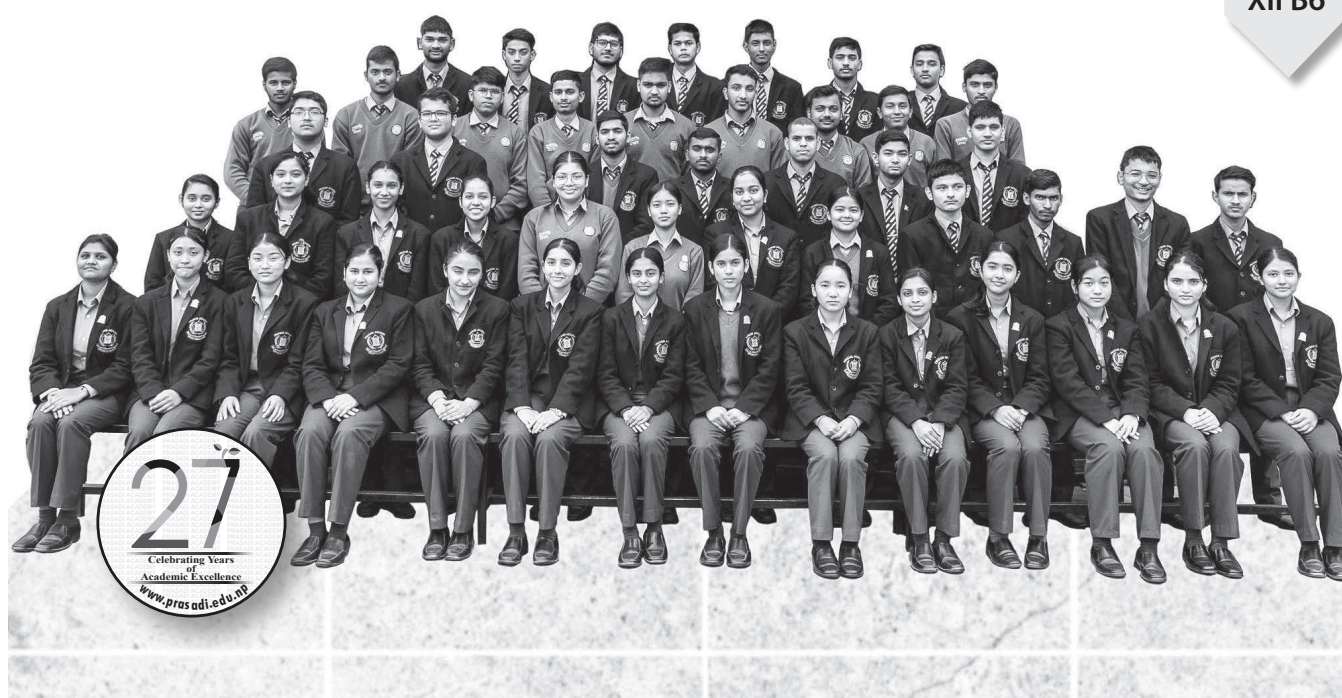

BBP sir: k garxa yaarr

These two years passed in blink of an eye. I have never thought I would get emotional at last day of my high school. You taught me to manage time, life lessons besides numerical problem and deviations. Thank you prasadi for giving me chance to create unforgettable memories and friends.

Life Intimacy with Prasadi

Life is good where network is weak
Found it more meaningful than I read
Life is good..

It's a story untold since early childhood when the life was fully fragranted and paradisiac in the holistic lap of our beloved parents. Giving a pensive look to life, it feels like a journey having the Everest of happiness , oceans of tear whose alpha and omega has got no termination. The changing mode of time is unenviable with which everything changes spontaneously however the grace of god is still the same for all. God's omnipresence, omniscience and omnipotence is sufficient to assure that our life is decent and further almighty has splendid plans for us . The various aspects of my life, too has changed but the etiquate "ABCD" , Attitude, Behaviour, Character & Discipline with which I flourished are still as fresh as morning dew.

After graduating SEE from Nepal Police School (NPS), Rautahat, Prasadi Academy wasn't my googled high school to reach here but the scholarship which was offered to me by the joint collaboration of NPWA bhrikutimandap, Ktm and Prasadi Academy, lalitpur to whom I'm grateful & will remain forever. It was the first time when my unstoppable feet reached Kathmandu valley having heartfelt of desire seeking for quality education. How can I forget those initial days when I was dwelling all alone in this strange city encountering strangers everywhere which appeared as a challenge for a village boy to sustain here. I can still remember those days when I explored about different high schools tirelessly were I could have continued my plus two education but the matter was of financial status. I seek for high school providing quality education up to the level of my financial approach but found none and that critical situation was wanting me to return back from where I came from but I denied and that was the right decision I took.

You know, will pave the way and it became true with my life too, when I got to know about the scholarship opportunity notice published by NPWA where I found PRASADI ACADEMY on the top of list. It was the first time I recognized PRASADI as one of the recognized +2 institution of Nepal despite any hype unlike other high schools. With the reference to the same notice I met NPWA Head/Chief and going through series of conversations & documental processes, my name was finalized by NPWA to study at PRASADI ACADEMY under science faculty (Bio +Maths). After my admission on 2nd Bhadra 2079, I found myself fortunate enough to be PRASADIAN & that was the moment full of contentment.

Honestly, the journey of +2 education was mind blowing, marvelous and heart winning at PRASADI. The splendid teaching and learning environment with sufficient amusement under proper surveillance are the core eternal insight of PRASADI I found friendly environment of the high school which helps students to flourish the emerging talent under proper guidance. Although I felt captive at Prasadi in the initial days, later I felt its importance. Prasadi paves the roadmap of decent life to achieve milestone. Nothing is permanent but CHANGE & every moments we are having today are transient and still the best is yet to come. Now, accepting the change, time to disperse in the different direction of the world is not much far. We are going to depart soon and will be bringing good news from round the world.

How can I forget 17th Falgun, 2080, one of the miraculous days with PRASADIANS at Tribhuwan Park where everyone was in a cheerful spirit.

Hilarious group dance, cheerful faces, pleasing nature and the delicious foods are sweetest memories of the day.

After having our chocopie day "Farewell", not by will but to say "Good Bye PRASADI" will still be the three hardest words.

No worries for our departure with heavy heart, wherever we go, Prasadi and Prasadian will always be a part of our life.

Holding on To These Memories

If you told me 2 years ago, I'd have qualified from Prasadi Academy. I would've laughed at your face. Yet here I am writing this goodbye article. On 22nd march we had our last class at Prasadi Academy. That was our last goodbye to our dear high school. The truth is I'm not ready to say goodbye. These dozens of memories associated to each and every past of Prasadi. Laughing in class gossiping in canteen and those conversation with our dear teachers are engraved in my brain. URT Sir was right. After all, 2 years went by in a blink of an eye. I met amazing teacher who shaped me. Above all, the day of the picnic was exciting. I'll miss each and every tiny part of Prasadi. My heart cries whenever I think I won't be sitting on that desk, listening to the lecture at 6 am in the morning half-asleep. Being scolded for being late and waiting for tiffin break since the first period will be well remembered. Parting away from the high school which gave you so much is hard but life goes on. It breaks my heart to even think about the fact that from tomorrow we won't be able to spend time with our friends and I thank my teachers, my second guardian to shape me in these 2 years. My only regret is I couldn't properly thank every teacher for guiding me these 2 years and bid them proper goodbye. At the end of the day we all have to move on and part our ways holding onto these memories.

Memories Never To Fade Away

As I put my little steps onto the paved pathway towards the new classroom, I felt no zest or eagerness but mingled emotions of strain and loath that ruled my heart. New faces with expressions of charm and happiness were ambient which gave the feeling of my small world.

Sitting on the last bench of a noisy class, I wonder, how many days do we have in hand until we bid farewell to our high school life ? I suddenly go numb as I remember "Not many". Although I've felt like a bird inside a golden cage all those years but the thought of flying away scares me even more.

It brings tears in my eyes to recall every single memory I have treasured from the 1st step I had until the last one in this high school. I carry all the moral life. I can now face the challenges life has to offer me without any difficulties. I doubt if I would have gained this strength if I were not here.

Chatting during chemistry classes, completing incomplete homework in other classes, putting efforts not to fall a sleep in classes, trying to avoid first bench and many more. Will we get another golden chance to live our high school life or conduct stupid MISCHIEF? The answer is big 'NO'.

No regrets, no grumbling. Confidently in the midst of crowd I can proudly say I am what I am just because of my teachers. The journey wasn't easy one but didn't fall too far. We were surrounded by good friends and guiding teachers. We aren't just leaving PRASADI empty handed.

Besides, being a student of 12 B6 science, I thank all my friends for the love and support , togetherness and beautiful friendship where we create a class of superlative.

Before I end my words, I would like to wish my juniors the very best for up coming days and be a proud Prasadian.

Time to Bid Goodbye!!

The two years in Prasadi has passed by in a split second. It just seems yesterday when I entered the gate of Prasadi for the first time and now here I am gathering all the beautiful memories that I made in high school. I vividly recall each and every moment spent here. I have collected a lot of sweet and bitter memories within the past two years. Even the bitter time of those days seems sweet these days.

Chatting with friends, unexpected bag checking, pressure of homework and exams, laughing at silly jokes, list of rules and regulations to follow, unforgettable picnic day will always be remembered. Even though those days gone forever but the moments are locked in our hearts forever.

Prasadi has taught me to be confident and calm even at difficult situations. It has taught me how to manage time and be disciplined and punctual. It has helped me excel my life not only by providing quality education but also by developing good qualities in me and motivating me to step forward in life. I would be forever grateful to my teachers and friends who have always been there to motivate and support me.

The journey in Prasadi was full of excitement and fun. But now it is time to bid goodbye to all those joyful and sorrowful days. All those precious memories and experiences of each and every moment will always be cherished and treasured in our mind and heart forever.

Life, an Exciting Ride

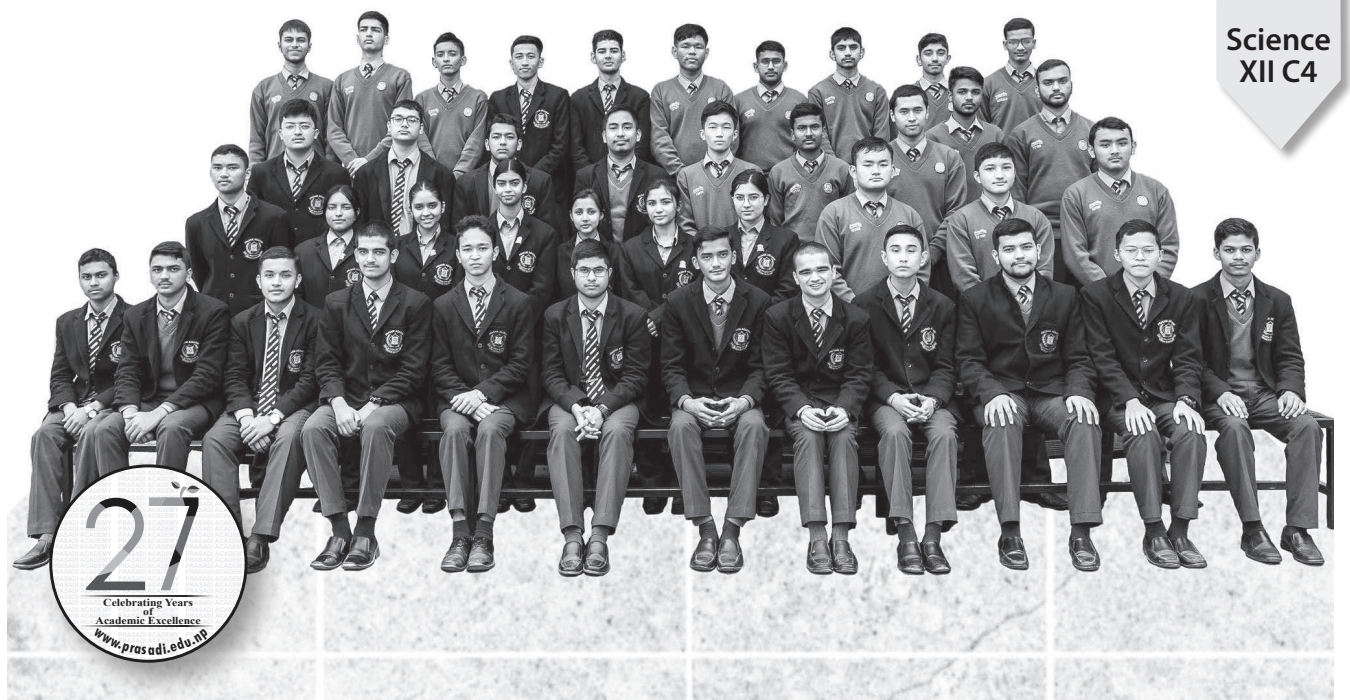

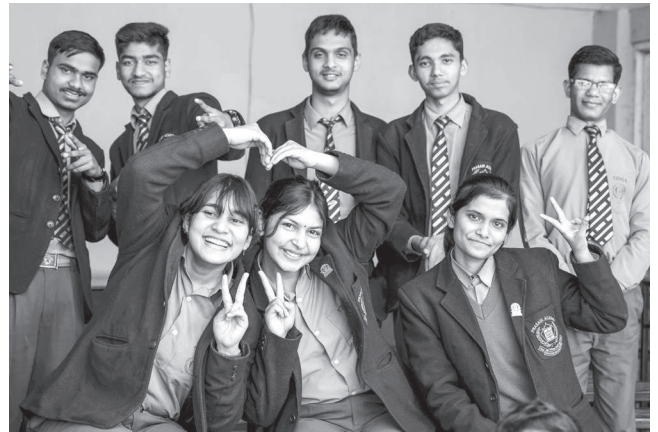

Life's like a big, exciting ride
Sometimes we laugh, sometimes we cry
From morning till night, we keep moving on,
With highs and lows, till the day is gone.

When we're young, we chase our dreams,
Full of hope and bursting at the seams.
But as we go through ups and downs,
Life throws us smiles and sometimes frowns.

We make friends, sharing laughs so bright,
But also feel sadness in the quiet of night.
Life's a mix of good and bad,
With happy moments and moments sad.

So, to all my young friends, here's what I'll say,
Life's an adventure in every way.
Take it all in, each twist and turn,
For in life's journey, we live and learn.

Some Other Beginning's End

“Every new beginning comes from some other beginning's ends”. It went by first just like our parents said it would. The day when I walked into Prasadi premises is still fresh and new in my mind. All the time in my mind, it felt extremely confusing with what shall I do. However studying in prasadi has made me confident and ready to face new challenges and overcome my weakness. These past two years have made me learn so many things in my life. Last day of summer has its end. However there's a whole new book, a whole new season waiting for us ahead. With this I'd like to wave you all my final good byes with a hope full of seeing successful faces in the future.

Blue Grey Memories

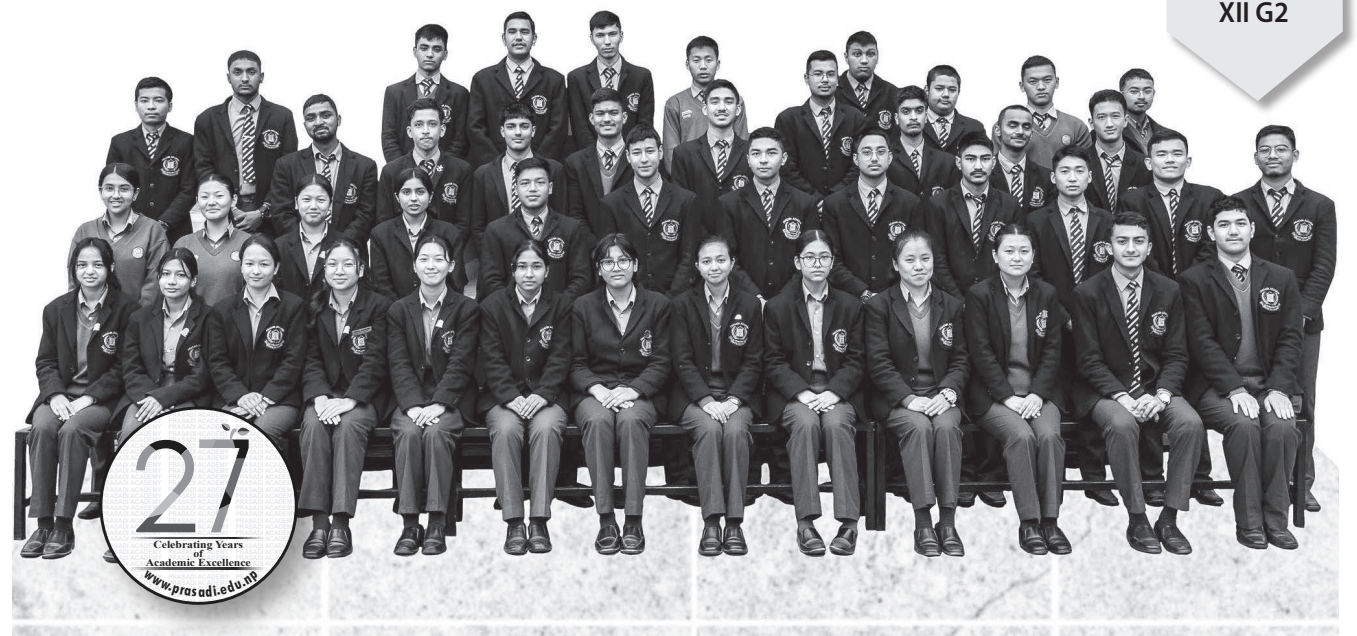

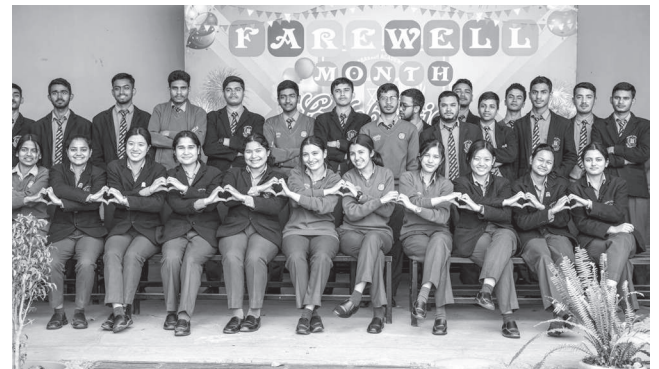

Accomplishing the journey of school, destiny brought me to Prasadi's blue grey premises with a difference, I looked at the blue grey painted walls. I looked at the students in blue grey uniform then somebody unidentified from a corner curled their lips, smiling at me. It was for the first time, there blue grey memories made me feel familiar.

I remember, of course I'll always remember, how the silent classroom turned into a valuable one. How plain talks turned into a cozy one. No doubt, choosing Prasadi was always a good decision. By the time, I realized, how beautiful it is to be here. I realized I was capable of treasuring colours within blue grey. Being here was like an adventure, an adventure of being optimistic, an adventure of learning and an adventure of admiring simple things. Prasadi taught me the value of time, even those 20 minutes were enough and satisfying as a break and now that we have come to an end of this moment I want to cherish these memories forever. Appreciating the love & care of every teaching and non-teaching staffs within these 2 years.

Lastly, the journey might be difficult, despairing and challenging but remember the best is yet to come.

The End of A Beautiful Journey

The journey of being prasadian started on 29th Shrawan 2079 B.S. Hearing about Prasadi from a senior, there were lots of rules & boundries. of course, everything has a boundary, If you don't cross the boundary, you are always safe. Everyone getting used to the new environment was so mesmerizing. Ahead of bidding farewell to the school, we won't be able to hear SH sir " Find X", "Zn dust matra ta aaucha yiniharu laai ."

KBP sir- " wow good question".

BA maam –" Kati thorai students, where are others?"

GT Sir- "Oee , Killer smile."

The moments in the last bench, getting targeted for making noise, will be missed.

The only thing I can say is to treasure all the memories because you will realize it only when it's about to slip away from your hands forever . Now, all I can do is just look back and smile, and think how wonderful it has been to be a Prasadian these 2 years.

Proud to be Prasadian !

Those Two Years.....

In the ground of Prasadi, where many memories are made to be cherished.

We've spent two years and now it's time to say good bye.

The journey passes so fast and it feels like just yesterday when we first stepped inside.

The time flew by like, the birds up in the sky

Once I entered Prasadi, I was cared more than a family, love and inspiration of teachers were similar to that of our mom and dad.

The motivation speech of our chief sir would encourage any student to labour hard. Teachers inspired us, with words so kind, Friend's love, bond i.e hard to find.

Things inside Prasadi that will be memorable forever:

- Surprise bag checking
- Funny gossips with friends
- Unlimited enjoyment in picnic
- Laughing together with friends
- Following rules of prasadi
- Notice for extra classes on holiday
- Comedy of SH sir, love of SSA ma'am and other teacher.

The journey with Prasadi may end but memories created here will stay in our heart forever and keep us together always and forever. It is very difficult to say good bye but life goes on with new paths, from school to high school and high school to university.

Prasadi ! Prasadi !! Prasadi !!!

How do I say good bye , with a heart that bends?

Mental Health

In the life full of hustle, taking care of our mental health is essential. The journey of nurturing our mind is as pivotal as physical health. A sound mind is essential for maintaining emotional stability, and coping with stress engaging in productive activities.

Mental health includes emotional, psychological and social well-being. Mental health is important at every stage of life from childhood, adolescence to adulthood. Life is a rollercoaster ride full of ups and downs. We experience mixture of good things and bad things. They are the regular part of Life. Mental health can be affected by relationship, expectation from family, society and academics. Mental instability in students can have profound consequences on their academics performance, emotional and quality of life. Mental illness can make people miserable. It can affect concentration of energy level and mental ability. Mental illness often leads to depression, anxiety heightened stress. To nurture the mental health, organization should launch awareness programs, offering counseling services and providing resources for stress management and coping strategies.

Encouraging healthy lifestyle choices such as regular exercise, balanced nutrition, and adequate sleep can also play a significant role.

Mental health is just as important as physical health yet it's often ignored or misunderstood. Part of the reason for this is because mental illness can be harder to see than physical illness. But just because you can't see, it doesn't mean it's not there. In conclusion our mental health matters and it deserves our attention and care.

Mom I Saw It...

Today I gave my mother,
See with her eyes.
Mother, your emotion and inner heart
Understood deeply.

My mother's laughing,
After the face
Saw that pain from the outside,
It's always okay to press on.
To the wound called
I saw a lot of burn today.

Mother is yours
From morning to evening
Looking at the busy time,
That's why mother don't keep us hungry
That empty stomach of yours will fall
I saw it closely.

That is yours who will sleep overnight
Saw the body getting closer
Soaking in the dark alone
I saw with my eyes closed
Your sacrifices and attention
Today I stuck at your place
Your hope for your children.
I stuck at your place and saw it.

Yes mother today is your
Sadness and pain saw by a different view,
Me with my mother's eyes
Visited mom today
That's why I saw the hidden pain deeply
Yes mom I saw it.

Prasadi; with the View of Prasadian

There is always a nostalgia in a place you have left and when you leave a beautiful place , you carry it with you wherever you go.

Prasadi Academy is the same place in my life. To be honest, I feel proud to be a student of one of the best high schools of Nepal. Being a Prasadian, I will always remember Prasadi for the memories it gave.

Let me tell about my two years of journey in Prasadi. Like every other school graduates, it was always like listening to a fairy tale from our elders about high school life and friends. Though I was enlivened thinking of it, nervousness was still pricking me somewhere.

The result of SEE brought the beginning of entrance exams and high school visits. As I already said, I never thought of going to Prasadi. If two years ago, I was told to be a Prasadian then I would surely deny it. But today I believe that I was destined to be a Prasadian and I feel proud of it. I gave the entrance exams and I got admission in Prasadi Academy.

My first day in Prasadi was not less than an adventure. It started with a feel of excitement and nervousness. Firstly, I was late for the high school due to bus delay and second, I was really nervous to step in. Everybody standing inside the premises was a stranger to me. I didn't know a single person. I felt like crying that day. But time passed and it made me realize that, that first step was the best thing that ever happened to me. I got new friends; those friends who will always take a very special place in my heart. Meeting them, I got to know that my purpose in Prasadi was not just getting qualified education but also achieving the most wonderful friendship which I would cherish for the rest of my life.

"Where care is culture," this slogan of Prasadi will be in mind of every Prasadian. Prasadi is beyond the expectation of every individual for me. It was far different from any talks told my the elders. In Prasadi, I understood that, it isn't where we came from, it is where we're going that counts.

Despite every expectation, Prasadi is always concerned for our care and our qualified education. Expecting long holiday would merely come true in Prasadi but it is really appreciable that we were warmly welcomed by whole environment of Prasadi as well as our respected Chief sir. The long holidays can never replace the joy of those 20 minutes break. These 20 minutes holds a lot of memories. It is not only the thing of everlasting long talks with friends, rest room queue, gossips of warm morning sun in the ground, the canteen that now creates a nostalgia in the mind and heart of every Prasadian. Prasadi taught us to cherish even small moments and we definitely learnt to make those small moments our happiness.

Time flew away and the day came when we realized our last day in Prasadi. Though the journey was of just two years, it created a special place in my heart. That last goodbye was the hardest but we made that goodbye as our best memories. I believe that goodbye may seem forever and farewell is like the end, but in our heart will be the memories and there, we all will always be together.

Some of My Perception in Life

As a human life, we get to face a lot of things in our life. There are many ups and downs we need to face in every step. We advance forward in life. However, there must be small light hope within ourselves no matter how harsh the situation is. We should never give up, as this small part of light may help us to lighten up a new life within ourselves.

In my Opinion, people should always try to be optimistic no matter what the situation is. We should always try to see good and positive aspects of everything because everything happens for a reason right? There is always something good hidden within everything that happens, although every time we might not be able to witness it.

The next important thing is to be kind to everyone and not expect anything in return. We should always try to help people out and respect others' opinion. Talking about expecting things from people. We might feel miserable when you don't get what you've expected From others. So, never have any expectations from anyone

Certainly, Self-love is something that's very important in each and everyone's life. You should not think of what others think about you because others' perception about you won't change the fact who you are! So you better look up to yourself in the mirror and admire and accept who you are. No one can love you better than yourself. Lastly, you only live once. So, enjoy every little moment do what you love, love yourself and appreciate what you have in your life.

Impact of Internet on Academic Performance

A social networking site is an online platform that allows users to create a public profile and interact with other users on the website. The emergence of social networking sites has broadened the base of contact, interaction, and communication among people living around the globe via the internet. Millions of students are logging in to these social networking sites every day. That's why many students have been blaming various social networking sites for their steady decrease in grade point averages, which has affected their study time, poor grammar, and wrong spelling when socializing on social media, as well as diverting their attention from their studies.

Children who regularly use Facebook and other online social networks tend to perform less well in school than those who use them rarely, new research has shown. However, pupils who went online to play video games rather than chat tended to perform better in schools because the activity enabled them to "apply and sharpen" problem-solving skills used in the classroom. Students who are logged on to Facebook while studying get significantly lower grades than those who are not, according to psychologists.

A study has found that the exam results of those who used the social networking site while working, even if it was on in the background, were 20 percent lower than non-users. According to researchers, the findings put a dent in the theory that young people's brains are better at multitasking on digital gadgets. The problem is that most people have Facebook or other social networking sites, their emails, and maybe instant messaging, constantly running in the background while they are carrying out other tasks. Studies suggest that while people may think constant task switching allows them to get more done in less time, the reality is that it extends the amount of time needed to carry out tasks and leads to more mistakes.

A study by Asdaque, Khan, and Rizvi in 2010 found that teachers' and students' major motivations for using the Internet were convenience (82.91%), usefulness (80.05%), and free access to information and software (71.4%). The article focused on how students and teachers use books and the internet when dealing with academic research. In addition, teachers found that the use of the internet allowed them to better tailor their teachings to each student.

According to Kubey and his team in 2001, reports have shown that males are predominately affected by internet dependence, more so than females, and an increased feeling of loneliness occurs when internet dependence takes place. Kubey and his team also found that an increase in internet dependence can result in lower grades and less class attendance and participation. Researchers found media use, in general, was associated with lower grade point averages (GPAs) and other negative academic outcomes. However, there were two exceptions: newspaper reading and listening to music were actually linked to a positive academic performance.

Live in the Moment

Do you know that where you are at present is not where you will be at the future? The time you finish reading this will not be as the same time you started to read. You will not be put into the same situations you are at the present. And as time passes you will either be filled with MEMORIES or with REGRETS. Which one do you think you will accept the most in your immediate future? Will it be the memories you make of the little time you have or will it be the regrets you hoped you never made? Well, you definitely want to look at your past while you appreciate the work you put yourself through and made yourself who you are at the present. So do everything you can do while you still have the time to do. Clock is ticking..

The friends, teachers and Prasadi Academy as a whole becomes only a memory after 2 years of school is over. The people and situations you face in the future won't be the same as this moment so appreciate everything and everyone while you still have the time to. 2 years in Prasadi will definitely help you a lot to learn a lot about time. The 20minutes break though seems very less at the beginning, will be a lot once you start utilizing it properly. Learn to do the same with your life. Every seconds of the ticking clock matters. Live in the moment and that's how you make the most out of your present.

Everything in life is now or never. Slowly as we begin to appreciate every moment, we will come to understand the power of now and then everything at the present will look beautiful like the stars twinkling in the dark sky.

Take Me Back..

High school is the peak of our life, and being a student at Prasadi Academy was fulfilling. When I walked into the premises of Prasadi Academy, I felt a completely different aura surround me. I wasn't scared I was rather excited. I had tons of questions in my head when I entered, I was wondering who would my deskmate be, how many friends I would make, what would my teachers be like. All of my questions were answered on the first day itself, when I entered the class.

High school was a roller coaster. From the start until the end, it was filled with joy, happiness, excitement, nervousness and all sorts of emotions anybody could feel. I learned a lot in these two years at Prasadi Academy. Not just academic knowledge but also practical skills which would prove to be helpful in the future. The most important thing that I learned was the value of time. The importance of being punctual and the consequences you could face when you're late (because I was late once). I'm grateful to my teachers who taught me not just from the book but life lessons as well. Being able to organize and participate in events always filled my heart with joy. Personally, Public Speaking Competition was the most joyous event as students from different classes gathered and spoke on various topics, the school picnic where we had fun like there was no tomorrow. Every single moment I spent here was worth it and fun. If I ever had a chance to travel back in time, I'd still choose to study at Prasadi Academy.

It wasn't until the end of grade 12 that I realized that the time spent here is priceless, the memories I made, the knowledge I gained, the friends I made, all of the teachers who taught us, all of these will never come back again. Having been able to organize and participate in events always filled my heart with joy. All the questions I had were answered and I'm left content with a heart full of memories which I will never forget.

आमा बिदाको त्यो दिन

आमा बिदा को त्यो कालो दिन, कस्तो होला भनि भस्कुन्छु

My Mother's Perfume

Like the serenity of the sweet summer sunsets, my mother's perfume smells like peace powering prejudice during threats.

The potency of her fragrance where even divinity would beg for mercy,

perceiving how her scent shatters adversity.

Admst the misery of this chaos, her perfume carries the calm.

She embraces the kinda memory you think about while casting a Patronus Charm.

In her perfume, a symphony of memories entwine,

Guiding me through the labyrinth of time.

A Fragrance, a comforting balm,

Her essence, a beacon in life's stormy qualm.

And anytime her scent strikes me, no matter what zone, Wherever I am, she brings me back home.

The Impact of Social Media On Mental Health

(Public Speaking Competition 2080)

Edward Lorenz, an American meteorologist and a mathematician who formulated the well-known butterfly effect hypothesis, once spoke to his audience. A mere flap of a butterfly's wings somewhere in Brazil is enough to set off a tornado in Texas 7240 kilometre away. I am reminded to these words when I heard social media and mental health. You all might be thinking why I am relating these things and what's the connection between them?

To answer these questions, let us shift our perspective a little. 2 years back in Lucknow, India, a 10-year-old boy allegedly hanged himself to death when his mother took away the phone from him and did not let him scroll social media websites and play online games. Police said he was scolded by his mother for not even going to school and being addicted to games and social media.

I think, the above incident has almost polarized the audience here. We can see, how the addiction of social media has brought the boy to a stage where he had to stay without phone, but he chose to die instead.

He forgot the difference between real life and virtual. The addiction of social media became so immense for him that he had quit all rest of the activities of his life. Here we can see that how the social media which does not even exist in real world, has no flat face or short and tall height but is close, infinite times closer, closer than 7240km. Then if something 7240km far can cause a disastrous tornado in Texas, then how cannot the social media, which is infinite times closer affect us. Thus, this closeness destroyed the mentality of the boy and led him to death.

Now picture this, a girl saying, "Oh My God, I got 25k followers on my Instagram account and I am not much far from getting 1 million followers. Now due to very high ambitions and craze of social media, she dreams at night, she dreams where her followers are decreasing and she in real time is all screaming and shouting uttering, "Mom, Dad please help me, I'm losing all my followers. Mom, Dad, where are you?" Mom!! Daddddddd!! Mommmmm!!!

This takes us back to the question, where I said connection between mental health and social media. Had she not been too much addicted to the social media, she would probably not suffer and cry, the way she did.

This proves that social media has a very strong impact on mental health. Despite the demerits, social media is also a platform where we can explore the world, see innovations, get opportunities, and make new friends. I strongly believe that social media, if used wisely, then it can be a platform for getting peace. But if we misuse and get addicted to it, then it will be the worst curse ever in the history of human which has the capacity to destroy the entire mankind in a blink of eye.

So, nothing in extreme is good; we must learn to use it wisely.

Thank you

 As a prasadian I've always felt that everyday was a burden, loads of homework waiting, lessons to be completed, monthly tests, exam. It was indeed frustrating but at the end of day these burdens which I saw as one, actually helped me grow my abilities both as student & as person. I'm grateful for everything for every moment that I can recall & I would like to thank everyone who unconditionally became part of it.

A life without education is valueless. Education develops a person sense of organization and respect for their vocation. A collage student is valuable because graduate or not always to be unemployed and earn money. Education is the only way to success.

Memories -
Through the pages of the past that I turned, I found infinite number of memories which just can't fit in this small piece of paper. The joy of whispering to each other, screaming at the top of our lungs in the absence of teachers, running like it's the end of world to reach on time, Each & every moment has left a deep impression on me. With the guidance of the teachers who made sure that we are on right path, 2 yrs. seemed to have passed in the blink of an eye.

Message -
Life may not always go the way you want, but just make sure that you don't have any regrets when you look back.

Memories are rather confusing stuff. One good memory can cheer your day and one bittersweet memory will leave you feeling empty.  Memories: When my mom helped me reach to Prasadi in 8 minutes from Anamnagar in her scooter that too in winter season all while I was wearing only my shirt & pant of course. Me and my friends laughing after school while going home. Travelling in packed tempos to get home. It was not fun at the moment but memorable. Jokes in the classroom that made some boring days really fun. Eating tons of food in the canteen and feeling sleepy in next period. Also, here in prasadi I discovered my eyesight was poor and henceforth became a proud "chasmis"
 The picnic was also really fun overall. I have met many wonderful people and close one because of prasadi.
 Message: Enjoy your moment here in Prasadi.
